BASEBALL BOXING WHIST — HERE AND EVERYWHERE — FOOTBALL BILLIARDS HUNTING

PRINCE HAD SPILL BUT WAS NOT HURT IN HUNT CLUB RUN

TORONTO, Oct. 16.—The Prince of Wales had a spill when participating in a fox hunt near Newmarket, arranged in his honor by the Toronto Hunt Club. He was not hurt. Remounting his horse he continued after the hounds. The Earl of Dunmore, who was also in the spill, retired.

OPENING GAMES OF BADMINTON CLUB IN THE DE LUXE HALL

The Badminton Club had its opening last night and a number of members were on hand to take part in the games and a few to watch. Unfortunately there was not much accommodation for the spectators as the courts take up all the available space in the hall. The small amount of vacant space is used by those who are awaiting their turns to play.

A number of the members are intending to play in the afternoon and it is expected that the courts will be kept busy almost every evening. Notice has been posted calling a general meeting tomorrow evening at half past seven in the hall to choose a treasurer in place of J. W. Hamilton, who is leaving for Vancouver.

SOUTH AFRICANS BEAT ASTON VILLA FOOTBALL TEAM BY THREE TO ONE

LONDON, Oct. 16.—An exhibition game was played yesterday between the visiting South African eleven and the Aston Villas resulting in a victory for the colonials, the score being three goals to nothing in their favor.

RECORD GOLF SCORE

OGDEN, Utah, Oct. 16. — The par 37 nine-hole Ogden Country Club golf course here was negotiated in 30 strokes by Alex Stevenson, club professional, in a recent tournament. The best previous score was 31. Stevenson shot an eagle, five birdies and four holes at par. A card of 45 to 50 for the average player is good golf on the Ogden course.

The men's section of the Fraternal Whist League opens the season tonight at the St. Regis Cafe with the following games scheduled: Sons of England vs. Knights of Columbus; Great War Veterans vs. Oddfellows; Knights of Pythias vs. Sons of Canada; St. Andrew's Society vs. Moose; Loyal Orange Lodge vs. Elks.

The fact that six teams have entered in the second division of the City Billiard League as against three in the first division indicates that there is to be a keen interest in the Intermediate department. It might be pointed out that the skill of the prospective players rather than their age will be the governing factor in classifying the teams.

Another meeting of the executive of the Basketball Association is called for this evening. The hall that will be used for the playing of the games will be decided upon and arrangements for the receiving of entries and the starting of the season will likely be made. The basketball season should get under way early in November if not sooner.
