AT OCEAN FALLS

Prince Rupert Lost Second Game on Tuesday by Score of One to Nil But Play Was Close

The two football cames played Rupert at Ocean Falls were even, fast and clean as ever seen in the paper town, all one to nil. The local players returned home last night on the steamer Prince Rupert.

In the first game Prince Rupert scored through McDougall who made a fine shot after some nice combination work was performed by Erskine, Warren and Mcthe field. This was fifteen minutes after the opening of second half, the first half being scoreless. Ten minutes later inside right scoring on a cross from the left wing.
