Serious Thinking Need Of Times.

In these days when candidates for public office are trifling over petty things and making a laughing stock of the constituency, it is time for people who value the good name of Prince Rupert and of the North to think seriously of the matter of voting. Should a candidate of that calibre be sent to Victoria he would be a cause for merriment there and Prince Rupert would suffer. This would be fatal to the future prospects of the city.

A people who live in Prince Rupert are working people. There are very few drones venture to live here. Men and women who go north are men and women who take life seriously. They are among the finest men and women in the world. To them we believe it is safe to leave the reputation of the city.

Big Man Needed To Do Big Things.

A big man is needed just now at Victoria at a time when there will be big things to do. To send a man who deals in all sorts of pettiness would be to expect to be used in a petty manner. The minister of lands is a man who commands the respect of the whole country. He is a man such as many constituencies would like to have to represent them. That is the sort of man to elect at a time like this.

Pattullo Is Fighter For Rights Of North.

Because of his position as a member of the cabinet, Hon. T. D. Pattullo is unable to get up in the House and tear loose like some of the opposition members do. He holds a responsible position. Where he is able to do his work is in the caucus of the party and in the cabinet councils. There he is always listened to with respect and his advice is invariably followed. He is the man we need there again and doubtless the people of Prince Rupert riding will see to it that he is the man chosen.

Is Called Away To Help Another.

Local Liberals will regret that their candidate, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, has to leave the constituency just at a critical time to help H. G. Perry, who is ill in the hospital with appendicitis. Mr. Pattullo is so confident that the people here will elect him that he has left the matter in their hands. He would have gone anyway, he says, as he cannot resist a call of that kind.

SITUATION OF THIS PORT IN REGARD DUTIES

Official Statement Secured From United States Consul on Supplying Boats

The following correspondence in regard to the handicaps on local supply houses in regard to fishing boats will prove of interest to the people of Prince Rupert:

E. A. Wakefield, Esq.,
United States Consul,
Prince Rupert, B.C.

Sir:—In the local newspaper, "The Daily News," of May 31st, the writer noticed an item headed "Restrictions are Removed," referring to the 50 per cent duty charged by the United States customs, on purchases of anchors, buoys, hooks and lines used on the trawls to replace those lost on the banks, and to get other supplies, such as food, fuel, bait and ice made at Canadian ports, are now to be allowed "Free Entry" into the United States.

As you are aware, this firm is interested in the outfitting of all fishing vessels at this port. We would appreciate a copy of the United States Treasury Department ruling on the above stated articles.

The latest ruling we have had from the United States Treasury Department was that 50 per cent would be charged on all replacements of a fishing vessel's gear, but the master of the United States fishing vessel could file an application for a refund of the duties and the same would be entertained. This of course does not constitute a "Free Entry" as referred to in the above quoted news item of the 31st May last.

Thanking you in advance for a copy of the Treasury Department ruling, we remain

Yours very truly,
Lipsett-Cunningham & Co. Ltd.
H. P. Lipsett, Manager.

Mr. Wakefield's Reply

Lipsett-Cunningham & Co., Ltd.,
Prince Rupert, B.C.

Gentlemen—This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, mentioning an article in the "Daily News" of Prince Rupert dated May 31st, in which was printed an item headed "Restrictions are Removed," having reference to the duty of 50 per cent charged under the Tariff Act of 1922 on ship's gear, repairs, etc. and inferring that this duty had been removed and that such gear, repairs, supplies, etc., were to be allowed, as stated in your letter, "Free Entry" into United States. If such a statement appeared in the paper mentioned it was incorrect. The Tariff Act of 1922 has not been changed in any detail concerning the duty assessed on gear, supplies, etc., purchased abroad by American vessels and also on repairs which were made abroad which were not necessarily made in order to insure the safety of ship, with possible cargo and passengers.

A communication received at this office presumably is responsible for the misunderstanding which has been occasioned by the article published by the "Daily News." This communication is as follows:

Treasury Order

"March 20, 1924. Section 466 makes dutiable the articles mentioned in your Despatch 901", as they are considered fishing vessel equipment. However, any duty assessed on the cost of replacement would be remitted upon production of evidence that anchors and buoys were actually lost on fishing trips, and that they were replaced and paid for by the crew, such losses being considered casualties within the meaning of Section 466."

(Signed) Hughes.

and was supplemented by the following memorandum: —

Another Memorandum

"'Articles referred to in my despatch No. 901:

Buoys, either canvas air filled, or ordinary wooden kegs, used to hold up the end of a line attached to fishing trawl.

Small anchors from 15 pounds to 25 pounds, used on the end of fishing trawls to hold it on the bottom.

Hooks and lines used to make up the trawl"; which was attached to the communication received from the Consul General at Vancouver. As interpreted at this office, this telegram and memorandum refers strictly to articles of gear which may be purchased in a foreign port after having been lost at sea through stress of weather and which could not have been obtained at an American port without inconveniencing the master and crew of the vessels for which the purchase is made.

Further inqury is being made and if information covering the matter is received a further reply to this letter will be sent.

Very respectfully yours,
E. A. WAKEFIELD,
American Consul.

WHAT I like about an election is reading the humorous stuff some of the editors publish.

THE Bishop of London says he feels like a boy of sixty six years of age. He must have been playing at politics like some of our local politicians. But that would make him a very young boy.

A SCOTSMAN when asked what brand of tobacco he was smoking, replied that he did not ask him.

YOU may have heard of the cashier girl who when asked if she would sit out the dance replied that she was too tired and would rather dance.

URGE SUPPRESSION OF DRUG TRAFFIC

School Board Endorses Resolution Sent Them Regarding Big Convention

At the meeting of the school board last night the following resolution was passed:

"Whereas the suppression of the drug traffic can only be accomplished by the united and co-operative action of all nations;

"And whereas Canada, in common with other countries, has a vital interest in the suppression of such traffic as it already constitutes a serious and insidious meance to our national welfare;

"Therefore be it resolved that we humbly petition the Government of Canada to take steps to have direct representation at the opium conference to be held in Europe this fall, and that such representation should include a minister of the Dominion cabinet and also a lay representative. Be it further respectfully submitted that the name of Judge Emily Murphy, authoress and police magistrate of Edmonton should be considered as a lay representative as her close study of and writings on the question, together with her wide experience in court work place her in a position to render valuable service to the conference; and furthermore there could be no more suitable delegate chosen to speak for the people of Canada, particularly the women, with whose viewpoint on this serious problem she is fully cognizant.

The pure lather of Sunlight Soap cleanses the clothes naturally, NOT chemically. The £5,000 Guarantee of Purity is stamped on every tablet of Sunlight Soap.

OF all things, table cloths and napkins benefit most from the mild, cleansing Sunlight bath. An ordinary washing wears table linen out even more than table use. How different the Sunlight way! Just soak the clothes, after rubbing lightly with Sunlight Soap, and all dirt is loosened, all grease dissolved—and this without any grinding rub on the wash board. Then you rinse and the dirt just runs away. Result: freshness, purity and snowy cleanliness.
