Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

March 24, 1914

The city council is hesitating about finally putting into effect a bylaw permitting Sunday pool. Ald. Kerr and Ald. Morrison, members of the license committee, are said to be opposed to the measure.

The mayor's veto power was exercised for the first time in the city's history last night when Mayor Newton took such action with a publicity grant of $10,000 which was approved by the council five to three. Voting for the grant were Ald. McClymont, Kerr, Dybhavn, Morrison and Basso-Bert and against, Ald. Montgomery, Morrissey and Maitland.

H. C. Brewster, leader of the Liberal party in British Columbia, and "Honest" John Oliver will visit Prince Rupert next week, it is announced.

CAPT. H. K. FREEMAN

An Appreciation by the Whiff Man

(With Apologies to Walt. Mason)

He was one of those that children loved, and women fell revere. He was one of those—a real He man—whom everyone held dear. He was a bluff old salt but always bright, and a carefree way had he. It was one of life's greatest pleasures to hear his cheerful "Howdy." Always obliging and willing to help a fellow man in distress, in fact he'd dig down to his big heart's depths to help a guy out of a mess. There's not a man in the halibut fleet, or a nautical on the land, who does not grieve over the death of Cap and the loss of his friendly hand. He may have had faults, for all of us have, and there's not one of us perfect as yet, but Hoomes K. had fewer of harmful intent than any guy ever I met. He was loved by his townsfolk, as few ever are, for his qualities manly and true. To sum up the Cap in a phrase we've all learned he was earnest and always "true blue."

NEW HAZELTON

Rev. W. M. Lees of Smithers preached in New Hazelton Sunday morning and in Hazelton in the evening.

S. H. Senkspiel has purchased the Price land adjoining New Hazelton and will open a pole camp. As fast as the timber is taken off, Mr. Senkspiel will prepare the land for hay production.

Mrs. George D. Parent has returned here after spending several months in Ottawa and Montreal, where her sons are attending school.

R. J. Morrison has purchased the residence of James Richmond, here. Mr. Richmond has moved to Terrace.

H. H. Little is recovering nicely from an operation in the Hazelton Hospital. Mr. Thompson is at Hazelton from Prince Rupert relieving him as manager of the Union Bank.

George Wilder of Usk is a patient in the Hazelton Hospital.

CALLED

Mrs. Terrace was engaging a new cook. After interviewing a large number of equally large ladies, she at last picked one Irish woman who seemed to be as nearly perfect as any cook can be nowadays. "I think we can arrange the matter of wages," remarked Mrs. Terrace. "What is your name?" Mrs. O'Shannessey, ma'am," was the answer, accompanied by a beaming smile. "Do you expect to be called Mrs. O'Shanneessey?" asked Mrs. Ter-Terrace. "Oh, no, ma'am," responded the applicant. "Not if you have an alarm clock."—Yorkshire Post.

Los Angeles Timber Products steamer El Cleuta is due at Buckley Bay tomorrow morning to load cants and finished lumber for California.

Mrs. Don Corker was taken to the hospital yesterday.

C. C. PERRY TELLS INDIAN STORY TO THE PEOPLE OF VANCOUVER

Any person who doubts the progressive character of the British Columbia Indians should consult with C. C. Perry, Indian agent, who has evidence in support of his contention that the natives are alive to the customs and usages of the age, even to the extent of appreciating the advantages, or otherwise, of leap year, says the Vancouver Province.

In one of the coast villages the other day, Mr. Perry states, a widower decided to again embark on the sea of matrimony, and secured the consent of a village belle to his suit.

Guests All Waiting

The church was all prepared for the marriage. The bridegroom was there, standing before the priest; the guests were assembled, but the bride-to-be did not put in an appearance.

Time went on and soon there was titters of laughter, and mumbled jests from the guests. Then the little brother of the missing girl appeared with the announcement: "Sister changed her mind. She's gone to Vancouver."

New Bride Offers

The disappointed man was about to leave the church when a young woman rose blushingly in the back of the church.

"If he wants to get married, and I'll do, I'll marry him. This is leap year, so I guess it is all right."

The surprised man looked around, inspected the proposer with a critical eye.

"Yes," he said, "you will do."

The preliminary arrangements were soon made and the guests again assembled after a brief adjournment, and the widower was married for the second time, but not to the bride he had chosen for himself.

Lieut. Erik Nelson, one of the pilots in the United States army round-the-world flight, which is due to reach Prince Rupert next week, was a pilot in the New York to Alaska flight which passed through Central British Columbia three years ago.

HER CHILDERN HAD WHOOPING COUGH

This is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It starts with fever and cough. The cough is at first short and sharp, but gradually increases in severity and occurs in sudden spasms, vomiting follows, and sometimes there is nose bleed; the child turns livid in the face, the eyes appear as if they would burst from their sockets, and suffocation seems imminent till relief is brought on by the "whoop."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will clear the bronchial tubes of the collected mucous and phlegm and in this way ease the racking cough, and in a short time make it disappear.

Mrs. L. Ambrose, Sarnia, Ont., writes:—"My little ones were both sick with whooping cough. I read where Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was good, and I only used two bottles and they were better. I had chronic bronchitis for three years and tried everything until, finally, I got 'Dr. Wood's'. I would not be without this remedy."

Price 35c a bottle; large family size 60c; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
