Pattullo And Workingmen.

An effort has been made to create the impression that les. They are in heaven. Mayor S. M. Newton is a friend of the workingman while Hon. T. D. Pattullo is a friend of the capitalist. And yet the reverse is correct. Mr. Pattullo is a member of the government which rouge on her cheeks, never has Capt. L. B. Also there are interests that object to the eight hour day, to minimum wage for 1.YING may not be right but girls, to protection of the timber against speculators and to many is good policy if you are making Miss Helen Fotos was the win- torial article it declares that the other things which the present government has undertaken, remarks to your wife about her Workers should take a firm stand on this matter.

Nothing Against Any Candidate.

The Daily News is saying nothing against any candidate. Both T. Ross Mackay and Mayor Newton are estimable gentle- Premier Suggests if Better Man men. We have no quarrel with either of them, and each has an important work to do in the community. It is our opinion, however, that the work is not representing the people at Victoria; because if either should go there he would be backing interests which are inimical to those of the mass of the people. He would here are unanimous that nominbe serving the interests instead of the mass of the people and alion day brought out a class of that is not what the workers of this city want.

Astute Way Of

Getting Control. The method of picking a man as candidate who has mixed in sending men to the Legislature a great deal with the people socially and who poses as a friend who will be in a position to frame of the worker is an astute one.
