Sport Chat

So far the second division billiard league tournaments have been interesting enough though perhaps not very close. The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage team started off by making a clean sweep over the Callies. Then the Vets handed a clean trimming to the boys from Seal Cove and were in turn defeated by the St. Andrew's team in almost as decisive a manner. This leaves the St. Andrew's at the head of the league and one wonders what will happen when they meet their brother players, the Callies, who are in the cellar. Tonight the St. Andrew's and Billiard Parlor teams meet.

Games this winter in the first division between the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor and the Great War Veterans give promise of being particularly interesting for the teams have the earmarks of being evenly matched from the head men down. There bids fair to be quite a keen contest for the league honors. Tonight these two teams meet for the first time as follows:

George McIlmoyle (Billiard Parlor) vs. Col. McMordie (Vets).

Charles Balagno vs. Sgt. Jebson.

Fred Stephens vs. Alex Volume.

B. Jelich vs. Fred Pyle.

Art Easson vs. J. Walsh.

Fearing that the continuous recording of individual scoring totals might tend to adversely affect team work of the players, the Prince Rupert Basketball Association decided to ask press statisticians to forego publishing these standings during the forthcoming season. That request has been met. It is now being suggested, however, that some officials of the organization be delegated to keep record of the scoring with a view to publishing a grand total list after the close of the season.

Sons of Canada Nose Out Over Colts and Maple Leafs Just Beat Gil's

ATTENDANCE LARGE

Intermediate Colts 52; Regiment, 25.
Maple Leafs, 23; Gil's 22.
Sons of Canada 29; Colts 27.

The Senior and Ladies' League basketball game last night were fast and keenly contested affairs with apparently little to chose between the contending aggregations. The Intermediate game was not so close, however, the winners clearly outclassing the losers. The attendance of fans was again large and everybody was pleased with the splendid contests witnessed.

Senior Game

The Sons of Canada got away to a good start in the first half at the close of which they had a substantial lead. The Colts picked up after the intermission, however, and overcame the margin against them. Once they were ahead and for the most of the time towards the end it was a tie score. The Canucks scored the winning points just before the final whistle. Several pretty long shots by George Mitchell featured the second half. Vic Menzies' height prevented the Colts getting away with several other shots in the course of the game. E. A. Mann refereed and the teams lined up as follows:

Sons of Canada—R. B. Skinner, V. Menzies, G. Anderson, Alex Mitchell and George Blythe.

Colts — Douglas Frizzell, R. Bartlett, E. Zetterman, G. Nason, George Mitchell and W. Mitchell.

Ladies' Game

The Ladies' League game was nip and tuck all the way. First the Maple Leafs were ahead and then Gil's, the latter leading by 10 to 8 at half time. The teams were never far separated and it took five minutes overtime to reach the decision by one point for the Maple Leafs. Both teams played good combination. R. B. Skinner refereed.

Maple Leafs — Myra Harvey, Lillian Lowe, Margaret Graham, Louie Fisher, Aileen Stephens and Laura Frizzell.

Gil's—Caroline Mitchell, Leona Parker, Marjorie Lancaster, Willa Dyer, Mary Long and Catherine Harvey.

Intermediate Game

The experience of the Intermediate Colts was perhaps the responsible factor for their decisive victory by 52 to 25 over the new team representing the regiment. The latter, with more practice, will undoubtedly play more effectively that they did on this their first appearance. R. B. Skinner refereed.

Colts—W. Wrathall, G. Shenton, Chester Clapp, Ralph Smith, A. Phillips and E. McLean.

Regiment—S. Bazett-Jones, W. Horrobin, C. McKeown, G. Boulter and A. Palmer.
