FASHIONS & FOIBLES

by Shirley Sharon

"Free Air" should be the family name of the new sports style affected by young girls with their short hair, short sleeves and short skirts.

One of the unsolved problems that fathers of daughters struggle with to-day is why it takes a girl just as long to dress when she has no hair to pin up, no clothes that fasten and no cuffs to button or pin in place. She comes down to break fast eventually but never now, looking as fresh as a flower in a perfectly simple frock that slips on over her head and ties in place with a narrow sash. These dresses, by the way, are especially nice for striped tub silks, silk broadcloth, flannel and cotton ratine for the lower edge is straight. They are also very smart in heavy crêpe de Chine, satin crêpe, etc.

PORT SIMPSON BALL TOSSERS WON FROM LOCAL COLTS TEAM

In the baseball game on Saturday between the Port Simpson and Colts' baseball teams the former won in a nine inning game by a score of 11 runs to 5. A native team from Vancouver Island was to have played the Port Simpson boys but at the last moment they did not arrive and the Colts picked a scratch team to meet them. The game was a good one up to the seventh innings when the score stood 4-4. In the eighth inning the Colts began to fall away and got batted pretty heavily. The battery for the Colts was Ray Commons and W. Lambie, pitchers, and Doug. Frizzell, catcher.
