CHILDREN'S MASQUERADE WAS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Many Youngsters in Costume Made Annual Event of I.O.D.E. Picturesque Indeed

The annual children's masquerade which took place last night in the Elks' Home under the auspices of Queen Mary Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, was as usual a very picturesque and successful affair.

There was a large attendance of children and grown-ups and a large number of the former were in costume.

Mrs. J. C. McLennan, Mrs. S. P. McDermid and Mrs. Wallace C. Orchard were the judges. They awarded prizes as follows:

Best girl's costume—Miss Edith Kergin, American Beauty. The prize was a bottle of perfume presented by Mrs. Orchard.

Best boy's costume—Miss Patricia Stork, in the continental suit of Lord Halliday, a costume of the Victorian era. The prize was a penknife presented by Mrs. David Thomson.

Best sustained girl's costume—Miss Nelda Hilditch as a housemaid.

Best sustained boy's costume—Master Douglas Scott as a negro. Most original girl's costume—Miss Audrey Parkin as a fairy.

Most original boy's costume—Master Edward Lipsett as an Indian.

The children danced from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, the unmasking taking place at 8:30 following the grand march and the judging. After 10 o'clock the adults took the floor and the affair was in progress until 1 o'clock. Just before midnight refreshments were served.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Mrs. R. Blance, Mrs. David Thomson, Mrs. S. Darton, Mrs. W. S. Fisher and Mrs. W. C. Orchard. A. E. Bazett-Jones carried out efficiently the duties as master of ceremonies and David Thomson and W. S. Fisher presided at the door. Music was furnished by Pryce's orchestra.

MISS CALDRONE WAS HURT AT BASKETBALL

Had to be Taken Home to Mine at Anyox in Sleigh Following Game

ANYOX, Feb. 2—Basketball has the centre of interest in Anyox at present. Some good matches have taken place in the three leagues, and this naturally has tended to create considerable enthusiasm amongst the fans. On one or two occasions the going has been somewhat rough, not intentionally but owing to the excitement of the play. In a game on Monday night Miss Calderone was pretty badly hurt and had to be taken to the Mine in a sleigh, and on the same evening in a game at the Mine, Fred Brown, one of the most valuable players of the Smelter team, had the misfortune to injure his foot, which will put him out of play for some time.

The London Chamber of Commerce sent a general invitation to members of the Board of Trade visiting the British Empire exhibition to use their rooms on the grounds. The invitation will be acknowledged by the local time. In the games recently played, the Smelter team has been a consistent winner, taking the Elks into camp on one night and the Mine basketers on another night. The Coke Plant and Tuxis, of the Intermediate League, played two games on successive basketball evenings, each winning a game.

Ladies' League The Bluebirds, of the Ladies' League, are coming to the front with wins rapidly, defeating the High School and the Pats, one after the other. This was the first loss for the Pats since basketball began this season, and the members state that their team won't lose many more. The Office and the Rovers met in one last when the High School, runners up, beat the leading Colts. Two games now divide these teams. The situation in the Ladies' League is very interesting just now with the Maple Leafs and Adanaes tied for first place. The Maple Leafs lost their margin of safety this week when they allowed the Teachers to double up the score in their favor on Monday night. In view of all that is at stake, the two ladies aggregations will be out with all they have, so as not to be beaten again. The match on Monday night next between the two aggregations should be a hot one. Victory then may mean ultimate championship honors for the winners. High school and Colts are tied for Junior League championship with the former team having played one game less than the latter.
