Never Has Outlook For Business Been so Good as Today Says C.P.R. Official

Never has the opportunity for Canadian business in the Orient been so good as it is today, says a recent issue of "Marketing." It is true that the general volume of business moving in China and Japan is somewhat below normal the result of both local and world be added to that list. Canadian flour particularly that of lower grade, is finding ready market and there is a steadily growing demand for Canadian farm and dairy produce, Canadian meats, too, are selling well in Japan. This trade has been fostered by the refrigerating service of the Canadian Pacific steamships from Vancouver. There is also an excellent demand for Canadian apples and if this is properly taken care of it will in all likelihood prove to be an important development of

The Little Red Hen

66 DUCK, puck, puck, puckAYah" cackles the little red hen, as she steps off the warm nest, broadcasting to the barnyard that she has just laid a fine, fresh egg. She makes a product that any "manufacturer" might be proud of, and doesn't hesitate to advertise the fact.

A duck egg might be just as good, but the duck evidently doesn't think so. She doesn't advertise, and duck eggs have no market.

To be absolutely sure in buying ANY merchandise stick to the advertised brands. For their manufacturers believe in them and tell you about them daily in the advertising columns of this newspaper, over their signatures.
