D. W. GRIFFITH PRESENTS HIS MONSTER HISTORI-CAL SPECTACULAR SUPER-PRODUCTION,

Amenicu

An enthralling photo-drama depicting the sacrifices made by the American Colonists during the Revolution in an inspiring and thrilling mainer, illustrating also the bebeginnings and causes that made these sacrifices necessary. Through this immense spectacle a delightful romance is interwoven. No expense or pains have been spared to make it absolutely correct historically, great attention being paid to details. Many incidents of those stirring times have been reproduced at the actual places where they occurred; actual costumes being worn and actual weapons used. Lexington, Concord, Valley Forge, the surrender of Cornwallis, the old house of Burgesses in Virginia where sat Washington, Patrick Henry and Jefferson. gorgeous scenes at the Court of King George III.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man he other day, "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought ther if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." or evening wear-36 inches in Black, Navy, Grey, Sand, Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. ANYOX LOSES ATHLETE

B. E. Crawford, Teller in Bank of Commerce, Took Interest in Basketball and Foot-

ANYOX, Dec. 6. - Athletics in Anyox became loser to a considerable extent when B. E. Crawford, for some time teller in the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, stepped aboard the S.S. Cardena Monday morning, bound for Vancouver. Prominent in basketball and football circles, Mr. Crawforl at times filled the secretaryship of both organizations, and much of Ladies' Black Kid Oxfords, Medium Heel, reg. 88.50. Sale the success achieved during the past two seasons was largely due to his interest and working for ;; all that was best in connection with both of these games.

William Adams, chief wireless operator on the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Russia, refurned to Vancouver on the Princess Beatrice this afternoon after having spent six weeks in the city visiting with 'Ir. and Mrs. Charles Cullen.

HAD BAD SPELLS WITH HER HEART

Mrs. C. Martin, R.R. No. 2. brillia, Ont., writes:--"I have en troubled with my heart for a long time and very often had bad spells with it." I would take fainting spells, and my husband had to have somebody to stay with me all the time. He got me everything he could think of to see if they would do me any good, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend was in to see! me and advised me to try
