DEFENDS INQUIRY

Editor, Daily News.

Your complaint re the proposed inquiry strikes me that it is only a matter of whose ox is being gored. While I am not sponsor of the proposed inquiry, I am prepared to defend it with or without your proposed city manager, providing it is conducted impartially, under the peculiar conditions where workmen are called upon to render evidence against he who holds the key to their daily bread.

While I note you are not worried about your foreman being convicted, you show considerable concern over the future docility of the workers lest they should not mistake the shout of the boss for the voice of God. Let us hope that the fulfillment of such dreams belong to the dead past, with or without your city manager. To make it plain I label this city manager as yours with the full knowledge that such a person would belong to, take his orders, develop his ideas and all-round instructions from exclusive circles such as Rotary Club, Prince Rupert Club or any other club where the select few assemble and big deals are consummated.

You talk like a child when you say that if a workman does his work well or uses his intelligence he will soon get a better job. Do you impute that the hundreds of thousands of jobless workers throughout the world are those who do not work well or use their intelligence. Take a tip from an old friend, Mr. Editor. Throw off your chains when you pen your editorials. Conditions are compelling us all to think and sympathize with each other. Thanking you for space, etc., respectfully,

GEORGE B. CASEY.

HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it." Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Gowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range of moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.

"Mortgaged to a washtub"

Many women have one-seventh of their future mortgaged to a washtub. Of course, they don't realize how washdays multiply into wash-months and wash-years. If they would only stop to think that one day in every seven is lost in washing—we're sure they'd call on us. For our services are varied, our prices are reasonable, we wash the clothes carefully and return them promptly. And the mortgage the washtub holds on the future can be lifted for good and all.
