ANTI-NARCOTIC LEAGUE TO WAGE WAR ON DRUGS

Organization Formed in Victoria to be Extended to Other Parts of Province

VICTORIA, Feb. 6. — With Dr. Melbourne Raynor elected president, the Anti-Narcotic League of Victoria and district was organized to open the battle on the use of drugs and 130 people interested, representing about seventy organizations, pledged their support at an organization meeting held at the Y.M.C.A. It is hoped that the movement started in Victoria will spread throughout the province to add power to the efforts of the local body in stamping out the drug habit throughout British Columbia.

The constitution of the Victoria League contains four principal objectives. First co-operation with provincial and municipal authorities in efforts to suppress the narcotic drug traffic. Second, to inaugurate a system of investigation of drug traffic methods. Third, to educate the public concerning the uses and misuses of narcotic drugs, by public lectures, literature, distribution and other methods. Fourth, to take steps to secure the erection by the provincial government of a suitable institution for the treatment of drug addicts.

Officers elected were: Doctor Melbourne Raynor, president; Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, first vice-president; Mrs. C. B. Schofield, second vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Hammond, secretary; C. B. Deaville, treasurer.

An executive committee of six members will be chosen at a meeting to be held this week by the league officers, and the personnel of five standing committees will be appointed by the officers and executive committee. The committees will be named as follows: Finance, Education, Investigation, and Publicity.

CHINESE WOMAN SELLS HER CHILD

Uses Money to Bury Her Mother-in-law, Says Pekin Police Records

PEKIN, Feb. 6. — A young Chinese woman, poverty-stricken through the long absence of her husband, recently sold her five-year-old daughter for $30 and used the proceeds to bury her mother-in-law, according to Pekin police records.

The husband many months ago joined one of the army divisions in Hupeh. The young wife supported her aged mother-in-law and child by sewing. She was highly respected by her neighbors because of her piety and diligence.

When the old woman died the daughter-in-law, prompted by devotion born of generations of reverence for the elders of the family, sacrificed her child that her husband's mother might receive proper burial.

SCHOOL TEACHES TO AVOID DIVORCE COURT

Students at Dana Manor Have so Far Never Given up Husbands

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—(By Canadian Press)—Students at Dana Manor, an aristocratic graduate school for girls, are being taught not how to be the divorcees of tomorrow. This special course is called the "human relations" course and has to do solely with love and marriage. It is said to be the most popular course in the curriculum with the future leaders of society who are attending the school, Mrs. Richard C. Cabot, wife of a noted diagnostician and author, is in charge.

For several years Mrs. Cabot has been telling the Dana Manor students how to size up men and how to hold them when once obtained. The records prove that the instruction is effective. So far not one of the misses who has gone out into the marriage market has visited the divorce courts.

"Society girls are much more serious minded and interested in life than people give them credit for," said Mrs. Cabot. "I tell the girls that the sexes are equal. I do not believe in feminism. I loathe the woman who apes the man. I impress on my pupils the fact that they must neither claim superiority nor admit inferiority. The girls are really pledged not to marry for wealth or prestige, but for love."

Some of the rules for happy married life that the girls learn are:

- "Never say 'I told you so,' Tell your husband everything." "Be truthful and honest in word and deed." "Cultivate a sense of humor." "Be happy in each other's success."

EXPENSIVELY GOOD

A matter-of-fact father of an embryo poet handed some of the lad's efforts to a distinguished author of verse, and asked for his opinion.

"Well, what's the answer?" queried the successful stockman. "Alas!" sighed the real poet, "those things are so good I'm afraid you'll have to support Henry the rest of his life."—Writer's Monthly.
