Youth is always in style and Gossards prolong youth

"Being slim may be a matter of pounds; but looking slim is a matter of where those pounds are placed."
Gossard corsets and brassieres offer an easy way to keep the figure youthful. They do not permit one's figure to "let down" and front, offered this year, is straight, giving a flat abdomen without any restriction over digestive organs.

The Gossard Gospel

teaches nine ideals - nine types of feminine figure as beautiful and as distinctive as the Nine Muses.

PRISONER REPORTED AT AN ONTARIO JAIL WITHOUT ANY ESCORT

SIMCOE, Feb. 6. - Oliver Robertson, keeper of Castle Robertson, Norfolk county's jail, got the shock of his life when a respectable appearing citizen presented himself at the jail, and, armed with letters of commitment from the Police Magistrate at Dunnville, demanded admission to serve seven days' sentence. The man explained that he had been convicted for running an automobile when under the influence of liquor, but that, being sick at the time, the Magistrate had allowed him to stay at home until cured, on condition that he went to the jail when he felt fit to stand imprisonment. The man carried out his part of the bargain. This is the first time in the memory of the keeper of the county jail that he had been called on to receive a guest unaccompanied by any officer of the law.

ALBERTA PLANS EXTEND INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT IN THAT PROVINCE

EDMONTON, Feb. 6 .- Alberta will probably have a new piece of legislation after the present session of the house, entitled the industrial disputes act, this bill being at present in course preparation by the cabinet. The new measure is designed to supplement the Lemieux Act of the Dominion, which enables industrial disputes to be settled by arbitration of the parties affected on an entirely voluntary basis. The Alberta act will deal with disputes taking place outside the realm of mining and transportation and such industries to which |

It will be voluntary like the Dominion measure as regards the intervention of the government in a dispute. Parties in an industrial controversy will be enabled to ask for the appointment of an arbitration board and to select terprise will revolutionize the their representatives on such

Minimum Wage

Whether or not the government will bring down this session amendments to the minimum wage act which were prepared last session but never presented to the house, is still a matter of doubt. Labor officials are understood to be pressing the government in the matter and a conference between the labor members of the legislature and Pre mier Greenfield will be Thursday on the subject.
