HIS HONOR'S OPINION

In a Western court a man was on trial for horse-stealing; and his lawyer in summing up the case said: "I respectfully ask your Honor to instruct the jury that it is the fundamental principle of law in this country that it is better for 99 guilty men to escape than for one innocent man to be found guilty."

"Yes, that is true," said the Judge, 'and I so instruct the jury; but I will add that it is the opinion of the court that the 99 guilty men have already escaped."

PYTHIANS MEET SUPREME DELEGATE

Social Evening Last Night on Occasion of Visit of Robert G. Loucks of Los Angeles

Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias of this city assembled last night at a social gathering in the Boston Hall to meet Robert G. Loucks, the supreme delegate from California, who is in the city on his way to Los Angeles after having attended the convention at Toronto. There was an impromptu program to which Mr. and Mrs. J. Clarke, P. H. Linzey and W. Burken contributed. Mr. Loucks gave a splendid address and also some humorous recitations. Supper was served.

There will be a special meeting of the Knights of Pythias tonight which Mr. Loucks will attend.

Tied games and inclement weather having delayed the playing of the Gilhuly Cup semi-finals so long, it will now be impossible to finish the second half of the Stuart Shield soccer competition before Fair Week. The opening match of the second half for the latter trophy is now scheduled to take place tomorrow evening. With the grounds taken up next Monday with the Labor Day celebration, there will be Wednesday and Friday evenings of next week for the Stuart Shield and the following Monday will be the last opportunity before the Fair so, at the best, only four games of the scheduled six can be played. By that time, of course, the Sons of Canada, who are well away in the lead for the Stuart Shield, may have the trophy cinched. Then it would be likely that the balance of the games would be cancelled. The rest of the teams will have something to say about that, however and the Callies and Great War Veterans, runners-up, will not be letting the Canucks get away without a struggle. Some very interesting matches are in prospect for the second half of the Stuart Shield.

The Stuart Shield standing to date is as follows:

	W.	D.	L.	Pts
S. of C.	3	0	0	6
G. W. V. A.	1	1	1	3
Callies	1	1	1	3
S. of E.	0	0	3	0

With the Fair Week inter-town baseball and football series now less than a fortnight away, the players should be working themselves into final trim. The remaining Football Association fixtures will ensure the soccerists getting the requisite practice while the baseball boys are to work out on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the Acropolis grounds. Bad weather has made practice impossible during the past fortnight but, if things clear up now, there is yet time to develop the standard of proficiency that, it is expected, will be required in successfully meeting the teams from the outside.

BOXING AT SMITHERS

VETERANS GO TO CUP FINAL

Defeated Sons of England by 2 to Nil in Gilhuly Cup Semi-Final Last Night

The Great War Veterans defeated the Sons of England by a score of 2 to nil in the semi-final for the Gilhuly soccer cup last night and will meet the Sons of Canada in the final on Labor Day.

The play last night was perhaps more evenly divided than the score would indicate but the Vets had the edge and were fully entitled to their victory. The Englishmen fielded a strong team but it failed to get into stride and towards the end was unable to successfully finish off when scoring chances presented themselves.

Both scores were made by Jimmie Johnson in the second half.

The Vets started the game with nine players and the Sons of England with ten. The ranks were soon filled, however, and the soldiers, though they had the grade in their favor, were unable to score. The play was pretty even and the defences kept things pretty well in midfield, so few scoring chances were lost.

Second Half

After Lambie, the English goalie, had saved a penalty taken by Westwood, the Vets got busy and Johnson made the opening score—a close in shot after a foul kick. The second goal originated similarly, Johnson again scoring with a pretty shot at longer range. The Sons of England missed two or three good chances.

The stars for the Sons of England were Dick Lambe at back, George Kelsey at centre half and Lambie in goal. Howard Frizzell made his initial appearance in goal for the Veterans and played a good game. Other outstanding players for the soldiers were W. Murray at back, Westwood at half and Johnson, forward.

Halves Shortened

Owing to the impending darkness, 35 minute halves were played with no intermission between.

A fair crowd was in attendance.

Tom Jones refereed, J. Marks and A. Clapperton were linesmen and the teams took the field as follows:

Sons of England—W. Lambie; Dick Howe and Dick Lambe; P. Cameron, G. Kelsey and A. Bales; George Hill Jr., P. Tinker, D. Munro, Dickens and George Howe.

Great War Veterans—Howard Frizzell; W. Murray and A. Hunter; George Findlay, W. Westwood and Fred Roberts; Robertson, J. Russell, J. Johnson, W. Mitchell and Dido Gurvich.
