Sagacity and Mother Love Averted Week-end Tragedy; Body Thrown in Garbage Tin

A feline tragedy was averted in the city police station early this week only by the sagacity and mother love of the station cat. Just recently the pet cat presented the police force with two kittens. On Monday morning, Constable McGlinchy reported to Sergeant Bailey that he had accidentally killed one of the kittens by sqeezing it in the cell door. Sure enough the kitten was lying, apparently dead, in the garbage can. On Monday afternoon the old cat was mourning her loss and refused to be comforted with generous servings of milk and other delicacies. Lew youngsters today ever saw a horse-hair sofa. They wouldn't know what to do with a fire taper, carpet stretcher, or coal oil lamp. They couldn't braid rags into a rug, or wind yarn without tangling. But they know the how and why of typewriters, phonographs, telephones, automobiles; what happens when a push of the button gives light, or a kodak's flash fixes their image on paper.

Their education is as modern as the advertisements they see. They have no' more use for the lamp and chimney of yesterday than you for the wick and tallow of the day before.

Advertisements induce such progress. They urge wide use that means improvement. They help you lift the out-of-date into the attic---rid you of the water buckets and soap kettles of slavedom. They bring late improvements within your reach.

Read the advertisements regularly. Keep alert to the new.

Von Reventlow Declares State Institute of Men

BERLIN May 14 .- The state is an institute of men and will remain a manly institution despite the efforts of modern women to get the upper hand, Count Von Reventlow, pan-German leader and candidate for the new Reichstag in Schleswig, where he is opposing Count Von Bernstoff, declared in a campaign speech.

"German women have had a taste of politics and like it," he declared, "and now have dreams of becoming a dominating power. But we do not want to see them rule Germany and have no idea of 26 YEARS OLD ASKED permitting them to oust the men as the governors."
