CALLIES BEATEN BY ENGLISHMEN

Scots Played In Hard Luck Last Night and Went Down in League Game by 2 to 1

The Sons of England beat the Callies by 2 to 1 in last night's league football game. All scores were made by the teams as they played uphill and the game was more evenly contested than the score would indicate. The Callies pressed hard in the second half and missed scoring several times by inches. Besides bad luck, lack of combination play on the forward line and the effective goal keeping of G. Harvey for the Englishmen were responsible factors for the Scottish defeat.

The Callies made their one and only point in the first half when J. Sims scored after a corner had been cleared. In the second half, A. Dickens scored the first for the Sons of England from a scrimmage at the goal mouth. Dick Howe was responsible for the second when the rest of players, having misunderstood a whistle, let him go through with the ball.

Tom Jones was referee and James Johnson and A. Clapperton acted as linesmen.

The teams took the field as follows:

Sons of England—G. Harvey; A. R. Lane and Dick Lambe; P. Cameron, G. Kelsey and F. Hodgkinson; G. Hill, jr., R. Howe, Percy Tinker, A. Dickens and George Howe.

Callies—J. Lonie; H. Hamilton and W. E. Williscroft; J. Sims, J. Woods and J. Cochrane; W. Hamilton, O. K. Lord, S. Elder, M. Andrews and J. Andrews.

League standing to date follows:

	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Sons of Canada	3	0	0	6
S. of E.	2	2	0	4
G. W. V. A.	1	2	0	2
Callies	1	3	0	2

RETAIL MERCHANTS' LUNCHEON MEETING

Business Matters Were Discussed and Musical Program Followed—Attendance Was Good

A business luncheon was held by the Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association in the St. Regis Cafe last night. President Thomas McMeekin was in the chair and many matters of interest to the merchants of the city were brought up and freely discussed, especially the boat service from this port to Stewart.

After the business was disposed of, a short musical program was rendered, the soloists being A. D. Plant and C. G. Manns. Syd Thompson accompanied. There was also community singing which was well supported by the members.

It was the first luncheon meeting of the association and it was well attended. The association has decided to make these meetings a permanent institution.

MOVING ROCK PLANT

Editor Daily News.

In the Daily News of May 27, I am reported as saying the city as a whole should bear the cost of quarrying the rock used in local improvement work now under construction. It is hard for me to believe your reporter understood me to make such a statement, but made it for me. What I did say was that in my opinion the cost of moving and installing rock crushing equipment on new site should be charged against the city as a whole and not the local improvement now under construction. I sincerely recommend that the young journalist who reports at council meetings for your paper, that he read and digest the Brass Check, authored by Upton Sinclair. Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, I remain respectfully,

GEO. B. CASEY.

COMMITTEE URGES PROHIBITION FOR BOMBAY PROVINCE

BOMBAY, May 28.—The excise committee appointed by the government of Bombay in 1922 has issued its report. It deals with the question of intoxicating drink as it affects that country and it asks the government to declare that total prohibition of alcoholic drinks and the sale of drugs be the goal of the excise policy.

The committee estimated that the enforcement of prohibition would mean an eventful deficit of about ten million dollars in the provincial revenue and suggests the levying of succession duties, taxes on betting, and speculation in future to make up the deficit.

LA FOLLETTE INDEPENDENT

Will Not Run on Any Ticket or Form New Party But is Important Factor

NEW YORK, May 28. — (By Canadian Press.)—Carter Field, Washington correspondent of the Herald-Tribune, writes as follows of the presidential aspirations of La Follette, stormy petrel of American politics:

Easily the most important political factor bearing on the presidential election—whether La Follette is to run as an independent—will be decided at a convention of his followers to be held at Cleveland after both the Republican and Democratic conventions have adjourned.

The date of this convention has been fixed for July 4, although, as a matter of fact, it is questionable whether by that time the Democratic hosts at Madison Square Garden will have picked their standard bearer.

The La Follette leaders, however, have decided on this program and are absolutely ignoring the plans of the more radical element of their group to hold a convention in St. Paul on June 17, after the Republican and before the Democratic convention.

No Third Party

La Follette has swept aside all thought among his followers of a full-fledged bolt from the Republican party. He has no thought of starting a third party or attempting to carry on with one even for the campaign. He does not want to be embarrassed and have his plans cluttered up with candidates for the Senate and House running on the ticket with him. He wants his followers who are running for senator or member of the House to go out and win the nomination from either the Republican or Democratic parties, while he runs without any party label whatever, as a straight-out, independent candidate for president.

Naturally he will have to have candidates for electors, but this, the senator thinks, will not be nearly so embarrassing as to have candidates for the regular offices. No one is ever very much concerned as to who the candidates for electors are, so there will be practically no occasion for bickering, factional rows, with possible cutting as a result growing out of this.

By this plan of running as an independent, Senator La Follette will lose nothing of his present strength with the voters and will avoid the danger of his followers getting into fights for their own personal fortunes, which might result in their presidential candidate suffering.

ALICE ARM

Several mining properties here are to be further developed this year. Operations are about to start on the Homestake mine and on the Sunset property on Roundy Creek. Several mining engineers, representing strong companies, are expected to visit the district this summer and it is likely that several properties which have been inactive for some time will again be developed.

E. J. Conway, field engineer for the Granby Co., and Dr. D. R. Learoyd of Anyox are mentioned as likely to be chosen as Conservative standard bearers for the forthcoming provincial election in Atlin district. The nominating convention is to take place at Anyox on Thursday night of this week.

Ed. Skogland had two toes broken last week while loading logs for the Granby Co.

Gus Strombeck has returned to Alice Arm after spending the past year and a half prospecting in the Kamloops district.

A daughter was born at the Anyox Hospital on May 24 to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Young of Alice Arm.

The Esperanza mine shipped thirty tons of ore to the Anyox smelter last week.
