"Trifling with Honor"

One of the most enthralling and exciting dramas in months. An epic of the great national game—baseball. All the underlying drama of the game is expressed as well as its comedy moments. The story of a girl's great love for a man who in the eyes of the world was an outcast, until through the power of that love he was brought back to a position of honor in the eyes of millions. Query! How long should a girl wait for a man? This is a picture for the whole family.

Rockliffe Fellowes, Buddy Messinger, Hayden Stevenson, Fritzi Ridgeway, and strong cast.

WIDENING OF AMERICANS

Student at Oxford Tells of Impressions Gained in England

LONDON, July 9. — Oxford University has found a subject for heated discussion in a speech made recently by a Rhodes Scholar from the United States, W. C. Greene, of Rhode Island, a graduate of Brown University. Mr. Greene was replying to a toast proposed by Rudyard Kipling at the annual dinner at Oxford of the Rhodes Scholarship Trust.

"Oxford and Europe," said Mr. Greene, as reported in the Daily Mail, "have brought death to us of our dreams, our romance, and our hopes that here we find three years of life, of continuous strangeness and duty.

"Romance is dead in us, and the grey, unbeautiful buildings of Oxford have become just old-fashioned buildings, and oftentimes prisons both of the soul and body. Oxford has not been Elysium, nor has our experience of the continent.

"But two things have come to a good many of us. We have learned the plain, old-fashioned, prehistoric, antediluvian joy of just sitting down. We have come to see that idlers and idleness of the body are not terms of contempt.

Intense Reverence

"The prime minister of England represents to many of us the thing which Oxford has brought to us, rightly or wrongly. Here we have sat down frequently, sometimes with intense reverence, at the foot of the grizzled figure of history.

"We have come to see the need of the new attitude towards peoples, and people towards the state. We go home, many of us, with the secret hope that some day we may enter the politics of our own country and perhaps breathe in the slow amalgam of our nature, the recognition of the social truth which has been enumerated so many times and so vainly during the last 2,000 years, which we with our younger ears, though older ones seem often unable so to do, can hear.

"We do not go home with regrets. Whatever may have been the unexpressed desires of Cecil Rhodes in laying the foundation of these scholarships, if he meant us to love another nation, if he meant us to become apostles of that great creed for which Mr. Kipling has labored so long and so finely, we must deny his hopes.

Love America

"Oxford and England and Europe have only made us love America more. We become more American every day that we are here. We are sick of handshaking across the seas.

"Long ago we resigned our positions as unofficial ambassadors. We go home gladly and eagerly to a nation which we know and love and understand, if often we cannot admire it.

"We go home with some appreciation of duty and appreciation of human life. Some day, perhaps, some of us may amount to something if the life of idleness has not become too strong."

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckleface, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

HOSTEL SUGGESTED FOR HOMELESS MEN

Victoria Ladies Think Hotel for Lonely Workers Needed

VICTORIA, July 9.—A movement for the establishment in the city of a hostel for working men has been started by a number of Victoria women, headed by Mrs. William Stevenson, widow of the late Rev. William Stevenson, and Mrs. Fanny Boyden. Such an institution, they feel, would do much for the worker, supplying a cheery rendezvous for homeless and lonely men, and guarding against the development of slums. Circular letters are being distributed to the public in efforts to gain support for the suggestion.

HAS BEEN HEAD OF COLLEGE AT WALLA WALLA MANY YEARS

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 8.—When Dr. Stephen B. L. Penrose, who in this summer's commencement celebrated his thirtieth anniversary as president of Whitman College here, took over the school, only two students attended it.

The enrollment now is 500, the institution having set that limit two years ago. Dr. Penrose is one of the oldest college presidents in the country in length of service. He was graduated from Williams College at 21 and was elected president of Whitman nine years later.
