THANKSGIVING is over and the volume of thankfulness that! ascended to the Almighty could! be checked off in a peck measure. Anyway it was a nice holiday and that was what the day was inended for.

THERE does not seem to be anything intervening now be-Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harris retween this and Christmas, except cently purchased the property of the annual shopping and the the Lindquist estate on Fourth rush during the last few days.

TROTSKY of Russia is worried !! over the peaceful way in which i Britain and the United States are carrying on. What he would like to see would be the people af each others' throats and a Red ! Army standing guard with at Cheka force big enough to cut them up if they were not obedon Thursday and intend staying ient to the commissars.
