Charge of Murder of two-year-old Child At Pentecostal Meeting

NANAIMO, Nov. 11. — Leslie Dickie, 50 years of age, a miner, is held by the local police charged with murder in connection with the death of his two year old grandson, Leslie Dickie, on Saturday night. Chief of Police Harris alleges that Dickie suffocated the boy by placing his hand over the lad's nose and mouth during the holding of Pentecostal services at his residence.

Although the boy's mother, Mrs. L. Dickie of Merritt, her mother and two sisters and three brothers are alleged to have been present at the meeting, no attempt was made to resist the grandfather's action, the police claim. Dickie joined the religious body a year ago and since then has been laboring under a strong religious fervor, according to the police.

SENATOR LODGE DIED SUNDAY

Was Prominent in Political Life of the United States

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 11. — Senator Henry Cabot Lodge died here Sunday night.

Looked upon as one of the leaders of modern democracy on the continent, Senator Lodge had sat in the Senate since 1893 continuously and since August 1918 had been leader of the Republican party. He opposed the league of Nations and the Treaty of Versailles and led the contest against President Wilson for ratification, winning the fight.

Mr. Lodge was a friend of Roosevelt and was always during his administration and since, prominent in party councils. He was also a student of art and literature and spoke French fluently.

CECIL JOINS THE CABINET

Two Ministers Added by Premier

LONDON, Dec. 11. — Premier Baldwin completed his cabinet yesterday by appointing Viscount Peel, first commissioner of works and public buildings, and Viscount Cecil, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

The King called a meeting of the Privy Council at the Palace yesterday and Parliament was further prorogued until December 12 to enable the new ministers to become acquainted with their departments before the opening of Parliament.

Premier Baldwin has called a cabinet council for tomorrow to discuss matters of policy.

The addition of Viscount Cecil to the cabinet is considered important owing to his interest in the League of Nations. It is also regarded as showing the government's policy in connection with the League remains unchanged.

HALIBUT SALE IS LARGE ONE

Approximately 600,000 Pounds Disposed of Here in Two Days

There was no holiday at the Fish Exchange or in the local halibut packing houses yesterday. In fact, arrivals yesterday were unusually large and 381,800 pounds was marketed. Today another 200,000 or so pounds was sold, making a total for the three past days of 600,000 pounds.

Weather has been cold and clear on the banks lately and very suitable for successful fishing. As a result a number of the large schooners have been getting in with their catches earlier than expected. None of the boats arriving over the week-end will return to the banks as it is only a few days now until the close season starts. The most of the large American schooners after selling here, are leaving for Seattle where they will tie up for the winter.

Transactions at the Fish Exchange yesterday were as follows:

American
Wade, 9,000 lbs., at 15.6c and 6c; Omaney, 40,000 lbs., at 14.3c and 6c; Alaska, 30,000 lbs., at 14.5c and 6c; Yukon, 35,000 lbs., at 14.5c and 6c; and Lumen, 12,000 lbs., at 15.7c and 6c, to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.
Wizard, 58,000 lbs., at 14.7c and 6c, to the Booth Fisheries Canadian Co.
Allen, 60,000 lbs., at 14.6c and 6c, to the Pacific Fisheries.
Bonanza, 43,000 lbs., at 14.6c and 6c; Brothers, 10,000 lbs., at 15.6c and 6c; and Lumen, 9,000 lbs., at 15.6c and 6c, to the Allyn Fisheries.
Constitution, 32,000 lbs., at 14.5c and 6c, and Senator, 20,000 lbs., at 14.6c and 6c to the Royal Fish Co.

Canadian
M. M. Christopher, 13,000 lbs., at 12.9c and 6c, and Pair of Jacks, 9,000 lbs., at 14c and 6c, to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.
Dolphin, 1,800 lbs., at 13.7c and 6c, to the Royal Fish Co.
Prosperity A., not satisfied with prices offering here, cleared for Vancouver with her catch in the hope of obtaining something better.

Today's Arrivals
Arrivals and sales this morning were as follows, all being American:

Helgeland, 60,000 lbs., at 14.2c and 6c, and Young America, 33,000 lbs., at 14.1c and 6c, to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.
Western, 46,000 lbs., at 14.6c and 6c, to the Pacific Fisheries.
Brisk, 38,000 lbs., at 14.5c and 6c, to the Allyn Fisheries.
Forward, 25,000 lbs., at 15.4c and 6c, to the Allyn Fisheries.
Prosperity, 30,000 lbs., at 17c and 19.5c, to the Pacific Fisheries for Seattle delivery.
Foremost, 85,000 lbs., decided to go south.

British Premier Makes First Public Pronouncement Since Return to Power at Election

LONDON, Nov. 11. — Stanley Baldwin was the guest of honor at last night's Lord Mayor's banquet at the Guildhall, other guests being Conservative ministers and their wives and the ambassadors of the United States, Spain, Italy and Japan.

Austin Chamberlain toasting the foreign ambassadors, emphasized the Empire's desire for peace and said: "We rejoice in the co-operation of the United States and trust this will not be withheld in the difficulties now to be faced."

Premier Baldwin said the main object of the Government's foreign policy would be stability and continuity. He intimated that if the Dominions and great industries were ready to do their part, the Government was ready to make provision for the opening of the Wembley Exhibition next year. He said the Government would do everything possible to improve the lot of the masses along lines the country had hitherto pursued and "not by changing the basis of our system by which we would fall into the pit of poverty and misery."

COLD WEATHER ALL OVER THE DISTRICT

Ten Below at Hazelton Saturday Night and Skeena is Freezing Over—No Snow at Stewart Yet

The clear cold spell which Prince Rupert has been experiencing for the past week and which today shows signs of becoming even more marked is not local. From the interior come reports of an unusual snap for this time of the year. At Hazelton, the thermometer registered 10 below on Saturday night and in places the Skeena River is already frozen over.

Though the weather has been cold there is no snow at Anyox or Stewart, officers on the steamer Gardena reported this morning.

Armistice Day is being Celebrated in London, Paris and Dublin Today

DUBLIN, November 11.—For the first time since the end of the war, Armistice Day is being generally celebrated throughout the Free State with memorial demonstrations in Dublin and elsewhere. Thousands of poppies were sold, the wearers including Republicans as well as Free Staters. A parade of ex-service men was held.

LONDON, November 11.—Tens of thousands of people of London gathered around the cenotaph in remembrance of one million of their kin who died in the Great War. King George, the Prince of Wales and the Duke of York were present at the ceremonies and placed wreaths on the tomb. The military and navy held a memorial service in Westminster Abbey.

AGENT GENERAL DIES IN LONDON

F. C. Wade, K.C. Had Varied and Distinguished Career: Victim Muscular Rheumatism

LONDON, Nov. 11. — F. C. Wade, agent general for British Columbia, died of muscular rheumatism last night. Last week he suffered a severe heart attack and last night collapsed succumbing a few hours later.

Mr. Wade was born in Bowmanville, Ontario, educated at Toronto University and became an editorial writer on the Toronto Globe in 1882. His journalistic work did not end there for, after being called to the bar in Manitoba, he became editorial writer for the Free Press at Winnipeg. After his removal to Vancouver he was one of the founders of the Sun and became the president of the company controlling that paper.

Mr. Wade had a varied career, taking a prominent part in political life as a Liberal and also distinguishing himself in the profession of law. He followed the late Sir Richard McBride as agent general for B.C. in London and since taking over the position has used his journalistic ability to further the cause of Canada in the Old Land.

Cabinet to Meet

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—The Provincial cabinet will meet this week to make temporary arrangements for the carrying on of the work of B.C. House in London following the death of F. C. Wade. W. C. McAdam is at present in charge of the office. A permanent successor will likely be named this month.

Telegram from King

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The widow of the late F. C. Wade received the following telegram from Buckingham Palace: "The King and Queen have heard with much regret the news of the death of Mr. Wade and desire me to express their deepest sympathy in your irreparable loss."

Bishop Perrin, formerly of the diocese of Columbia, B.C., will conduct services at the cremation of the remains. The ashes will eventually be conveyed to British Columbia. The funeral service will take place Thursday.

MINING ENGINEER FROM SALT LAKE HAD MANY SAMPLES

Taking with him thirteen sacks containing about 600 pounds of samples from some ten mining properties in the Portland Canal district including the Premier and Dunwell, L. F. Paddison, M.E. of the United States Smelting & Refining Co., Salt Lake City, passed through Saturday enroute south after having spent three weeks at Stewart during which time he visited all mining points of importance in the Bear and Salmon river sections. The samples will be thoroughly tested when he returns to Salt Lake City. Mr. Paddison stated, "This was his first trip to this part of British Columbia and he was much impressed with the apparent mining possibilities in the Portland Canal country."

BOATS COMING FOR OVERHAUL

B.C. Keeley Says Several Will be Here; Expect Get Small Coaster

B. C. Keeley, Pacific Coast manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, was in the city Saturday night making the round trip from Vancouver on the steamer Prince Rupert. He was on a trip of inspection at the same time taking a rest after a recent indisposition.

Mr. Keeley stated that several of the C.G.M.M. trans-Pacific and coasting boats would be calling here this winter to enter dry dock for overhaul. There was nothing new in connection with proposed Alaska vessel for the company, Mr. Keeley said. The situation now is the same as it was before—the necessary finances are being awaited. Mr. Keeley was hopeful, however, that another vessel would be secured before next summer to augment the Prince John on the Queen Charlotte Island run.

Speaking of the proposed shipments of Buckley Valley beef to the Orient from here, Mr. Keeley said that the company was in communication with local shippers. "We will be ready to handle anything that offers and, if the volume is sufficient, we will give low enough rates."

Accompanying Mr. Keeley were Mrs. Keeley and son; Miss McDonald, secretary; and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnston and son. Mr. Johnston is manager of the Johnston Storage Co., Vancouver.

POPPY DAY TAGGING RESULTED IN $216 BEING COLLECTED

The efforts of the Daughters of the Empire in connection with Poppy Day tagging resulted in $216.06 being realized, this representing the collections in the schools and the streets Saturday. Further returns on the sale of poppies and at outside points will be announced later by H. L. Landrey, secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association. The proceeds as a result of the tagging for disabled veterans and their dependants is a good deal in excess of what was realized last year.
