Position Of Senate Being Discussed.

The position of the Senate is being discussed by newspapers! and others. The Edmonton Journal in a recent issue says:

From the time the Senate came into being, nearly sixty value of the product was wel years ago; there has been talk of reforming it. When a government has been in a minority in that body and had its legislation branch, which is as yet in its inheld up, it has made threats of "mending or ending" the upper fancy, furnishes its quota tochamber. When questioned as to whether there would be an election before another session, he answered that he was unable to give a pledge that it would not be held. If he really intends to seek to bring about U.S. a reform of the Senate, he would certainly be wise to endeavor to secure a definite popular mandate to proceed with it before he enters on the subject.

SHOWER OF UNION JACKS.

Editor Daily News:

In answer to your request for suggestions as to how to fittingly receive Stuart MacLaren, the British aviator, would it not be a good thing to have a lot of small colored Union Jacks printed on paper and mixed up in a sack like confetti and when the aviator arrives to have one of the local aviators to take up the sack and give him a shower from the air of Union Jacks. The American aviators arrived in a snowstorm. The Britisher could arrive in a storm of British enthusiasm.
