TENTH of the series dealing with the establishment of the BANK OF MONTREAL at representative points in CANADA and elsewhere

IN LONDON

ON Threadneedle Street, in the old City section of London, the financial heart of the British Empire, the Bank of Montreal has been representing the interests of Canada since 1870. Its first London office was located at 27 Lombard Street. Later the Bank established an office at 47 Threadneedle Street E.C., afterwards extending its services to the Pall Mall section of London by creating an important branch at Waterloo Place in the heart of the theatre and shopping districts.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established over 100 years

Total Assets in excess of $650,000,000

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

September 5, 1914.

The Board of Trade, at its regular monthly meeting last night discussed the failure of both provincial and federal departments of public works to go on with work planned here. It was decided to instruct the secretary to write to both departments in order to ascertain definitely what was to be done.

A number of ladies of the city met at the home of Mrs. R. L. McIntosh yesterday to make plans for Red Cross work here. Committees were formed and the first effort will take the form of a patriotic concert.

The first regular passenger train from Prince George arrived sharp on time at 6 o'clock last night. The passenger equipment consisted of a first class passenger coach and a sleeper.

SMITHERS

Miss Muriel Stephens has gone to Prince Rupert to enter St. Joseph's Academy.

The schools have re-opened for the Fall term, and a large number of new pupils have made their appearance.

Two former teachers are back in the persons of Miss Felterby, principal, and Miss Hanna, who will again teach grades 5 and 6. Miss M. Fawcett of Vancouver, has charge of the primary grades while F. Rendle who formerly taught at South Bulkley will supervise the work of grades three and four.

The High School has a heavy enrollment, and the school board has been successful in securing the services as principal of V. Crockett who has had a wide teaching experience in eastern Canada, and abroad.

TERRACE NOTES

Miss Dewar of Victoria is teaching at Copper River this year.

Ellwood Brooks spent the week end in Prince Rupert.

Mrs. A. Y. Wilson of Remo was the guest of Mrs. T. J. Marsh for a few days this week.

J. Clark of Pacific was in town on Sunday.

Billy Watt returned to Terrace on Monday after spending the summer on the prairie.

Geo. Anderson accompanied his father and mother to Rupert on Sunday, returning to Terrace Monday night.

Mrs. Harry King who has been visiting her sister in Telkwa returned home at the beginning of the week.

A. E. Olson of Remo had the misfortune to have his horse killed on the railroad last week.

Miss Mayne Dobb, who spent

DRINK "CASCADE"—THE BETTER BEER

Why "Cascade"?

Because Cascade Beer has now reached the highest peak of perfection—nothing has been left undone that would add to its quality. The most elaborate machinery known to the science of brewing has been installed—every process in the brewing is supervised personally by a brewmaster of forty years' experience—every precaution is taken to keep our product absolutely pure. In fact, everything that human intelligence can contrive is done to place "Cascade Beer" on the pinnacle of excellence, and to keep it there! Therefore we say—

Insist on "Cascade"— the Better Beer

Just Out! Fox Trots by the World's Best Dance Orchestras!

Amazing Fox Trots, both of them—played by orchestras that are famous from coast to coast. Good numbers—made better by good orchestras—a standard of reproduction which only "His Master's Voice"—Victor can offer you—for through this medium the first rank artists of all the world place their best at your disposal.

Ask to hear the following record—expect as much as you like—you won't be disappointed.

Hinky Dinky Farlay Voo—Fox Trot
19405 You'll Never Get to Heaven with Those Eyes—Fox Trot
Jan Garber and His Orchestra
George Olsen and His Music

Other Fox Trots Just Out

Good-night, Sleep Tight—Fox Trot
19362 I'm Haunted by That Swanee River Song—Fox Trot
Waring's Pennsylvanians
Smooth fox trots, full-harmonized, with snappy banjo work and vigorous golden trumpets. A vocal refrain in the first one by Tom Waring. Excellent dances for the newer—and the older—steps.
"His Master's Voice"—Victor Record No. 19362

June Night—Fox Trot
19380 Only You—Fox Trot
Waring's Pennsylvanians
International Novelty Orchestra
Melodious fox trots. "June Night" has some polka-like rhythms—something very welcome in the fox trot. "Only You" from "I'll Say Sue Is" has a tender vocal refrain.
"His Master's Voice"—Victor Record No. 19380

Rock-a-Bye My Baby Blues—Waltz
19387 Tears of Happiness—Waltz
The Troubadours
The Benson Orchestra of Chicago
"Rock-a-Bye My Baby Blues" is an excellent waltz in the popular manner, with a yodel refrain based on "Emmett's Lullaby". "Tears of Happiness" has plenty of strings.
