A SUPER SANDWICH suggestion which we picked up in a famous Chicago restaurant results in a heavenly blend of flavors. Take a slice or two of rye bread (depending on size) pile with white chicken out England and Scotland, visited they are not built-over or dismeat; a thin slice of Swiss cheese and crisp lettuce. Over this ladle Thousand Island dressing. Top with a slice of tomato and a slice of hard-boiled egg. A sandwich that's out of this world!

HAVE YOU SERVED scalloped potatoes lately: Next time you make them, if you use less milk and substitute one can of cream of mushroom soup, you'll discover a delectable dish you'll want to serve often.

decorating we've come across is pare but a real treat. Combine 1/2 colorful kitchens ever. Every 2 tablespoons horseradish, 2 minute in them would be a pleasure. Actually, a brighter kitchen will give your spirits a lift, you know.

THE TIME HAS COME, as the saying goes—this time it's for black. There's something very pleasant and soul-satisfying in slipping into your first black dress after all the light clothes of summer. Silk crepe is quite a favorite for this time of year - not too warm but dark enough.
