De Valera Declares Republic Alive and Strong in Ireland Message Will Go Out To World

INNIS, Ireland, Aug. 15.— Eamonn De Valera, Republican NEW BASE FOR leader, declared in a speech in O'Connell Square today, resuming NEW BASE FOR a discourse which was interrupted just a year ago, when he was taken into custody by Free State authorities, that tomorrow a message would go forth to the world that the republic they thought had been killed was alive and strong.

When De Valera reached here he found crowds assembled while lighted candles had been placed in the windows of the United States Aviators Now Hope houses.
