BABY PEGGY IN

"THE FAMILY SECRET"

The tiny Sarah Bernhardt in a combination of Frances Hodgson Burnett's celebrated novel "Editha's Burglar" and Augustus Thomas' brilliant stage success "The Burglar." A photo-drama with many big moments, shadowy secrets, thrilling events, a charming child and intriguing fates. "Help"! she cried and the burglar responded heroically in this photo-play of love and laughter. When a child gets into trouble the world feels a tug at its heart-strings. The discovery that the burglar in her own home was her own father—well—that sure was trouble. A picture for the whole family. Exciting! Appealing! Joy-infusing! Superb cast. Baby Peggy Montgomery, Edward Earle, Gladys Hulette, Frank Currier, Cesare Gravina, Martin Turner, Martha Mattox and others.

Comedy—"Roughing It." Fox News-Gazette.

Admission 35c and 10c.

FUNERAL OF AGED LADY AT SMITHERS

Mrs. Halvor Gunderson of Glentanna was Buried on Sunday Afternoon

SMITHERS, B.C., November 19. The funeral of the late Mrs. Halvor Gunderson of Glentanna, took place on Sunday afternoon. The service, conducted by the Rev. R. E. W. Biddell was held in the Glentanna school house and was very largely attended by friends in the surrounding district. Interment was made in the Smithers Cemetery.

In addition to the widower, she is survived by seven children, two of which, Henry and Gertrude are living here on the farm. Two are in Saskatchewan, two in Montana and one in Minnesota.

The deceased lady was in her eighty-second year and came to this district from Saskatchewan some five years ago.

OLD TAXI DRIVERS PLYING IN LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The oldest taxi-driver at the wheel in London is one aged 83, said an official of the Motorcab Trade Protective Association, when asked about this question. Michael Death, however, has the longest license record, 54 years. He retired a year ago. John Fisher, 77, has had a license for 53 years. Of course, these veterans have only of late years turned to taxis, having piloted hacks over London's streets before taxis were heard of.

HOME BANK TRIALS ARE PROVING COSTLY

Twelve Hundred Dollars a Day Being Spent on Court Sitting at Toronto

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—(By Canadian Press)—It is costing about $1,200 a day to try the Home Bank directors accused of conspiracy to defraud before Judge Coatsworth at the Toronto City Hall. The trials of the eight directors, the accountant and auditor of the ill-fated Home Bank will cost approximately $175,000 before they are finished, with a prospect of another $25,000 added to the cost by proceedings at the Assizes afterwards.

The trials began on Sept. 9 with Ocean G. Smith, accountant of the bank, the first to appear before County Judge Coatsworth. At that time a period of two weeks was estimated for each trial and there were ten men to be tried, which would run the trials to the middle of February, 1925. It has taken several weeks to try the accountant, the bank auditor, Sydney H. Jones, and the first director, Clarence F. Smith, and the trials of the remaining seven will take 14 weeks, it is expected. The process is a tedious and intricate one, hampered with countless legal and technical details.

High Fees

Why $1,200 a day? There are four crown counsel in addition to the representative of the finance department of the Dominion government. The leading counsel receive at least $300 a day each. The chief prosecuting counsel was specially appointed by the province of Ontario, which pays his fees. Expenses of the defence counsel are, of course, paid by the accused. There are the "ordinary witnesses, who are paid $4.00 a day, and the "professionals," at $4.00 a day, and in the first three trials 108 witnesses were examined. Then there is the cost of the stenographic report, no small item. The salaries of the judge and permanent officers of the court, etc., are of course paid out of the public purse.

The stenographic report of the first three trials contains approximately 1,290,000 words. Proceedings are pending in the Assizes which will likely add $25,000 to the total cost if they take place following the present trials before Judge Coatsworth.

FORTUNES ARE FOUNDED ON SMALL CASH SAVINGS

It's not what you make it's what you save that counts. It is a recognized fact that a business conducted on a cash basis can be operated much more economically than one conducted on a credit basis. However, when there is no inducement to pay cash, why do so? More and more the world over the cash system is coming into use. As a result of our advertising of the past week we found that given the proper inducement the people of Prince Rupert, too, are willing to pay cash. Have you investigated our proposition, if not why not? The proof of the pudding is in the eating therefore F. W. MOERSCH, Grocer. Phone 13.
