HE SURE FELT MEAN BUT MENDED HIS WAYS

Said a well known local man the other day "Well, Sir, the meanest feeling I ever had come over me was last Christmas morning. I had passed up the Christmas card idea entirely and of course was deluged with all sorts of lovely Christmas greetings from relatives and old friends. And there, I hadn't sent out a single one. I thought then if everyone had been like myself a lot of real joy would have been lost. I determined to see that nothing of the sort occurs this Christmas. I am going to dispense sunshine on the "glad morn" as well as receive it. Your private greeting card can be selected at Rose, Cowan & Latta's, Fourth St., from our wide range at moderate cost, and cards will be printed on day of order. Phone 234.

BREAD TO BE SHOWN AT THEATRE TONIGHT

Well Known Book Has Been Pictured and it Illustrates Marriage

It's a curious story that is shown in picture at the Westholme tonight. "Bread" is a tale to two sisters and some lovers and husbands. One becomes a business woman and later marries. The other marries and has children and is poor.

The climax takes place in a Ford Sedan when a separated man and wife meet and are thrown into each others arms through the lurching of the car. It is a story of ordinary people but is replete with thrilling emotion.

MIDWEEK PICTURE IS A COMEDY FEATURE

Tale of Irish Conductor and How he Carried out his Duties

"Conductor 1492" is the tale of an ambitious young Irishman just arrived in this country and bent on making his way to fame and fortune—no matter how.

With a ready smile and a willing hand he got along well in his own way. Terry was not the man to dodge a fight and many and furious were the ones he fought with people who could not agree with his views.

He finally realized one of his boyhood ambitions when he was hired as a conductor by the Loteda Traction Company, and donned the blue uniform with the shining buttons. The legend on his new cap read "Conductor 1492," and thus he was known.

Johnny Hines made good his reputation as a comedian of the highest rank in his role. The laughs are long and loud as he goes about his duties, collecting fares, disposing of refractory passengers, assisting ladies to board and leave the car, and various pleasantries he indulges in to make the time pass in his own delightful manner.

ARTHUR STRINGER YARN SHOWN AT THE MOVIES

Tale of How a Man and Woman Lived in the Woods Without Food or Weapon

Two or three years ago Arthur Stringer, the novelist, spent a day or two in Prince Rupert. He is a Canadian and writes Canadian stories. At this week end one of his stories will be shown. "Empty Hands" is a story of a girl of idleness, who, through fate, is stranded in a wilderness with a man of steel, of honor and an uncanny knowledge of the ways of the wilds. These two people of vastly different creeds and from different civilizations are reduced to the primitive to which they must necessarily resort for the sake of self-preservation.

Empty handed they begin, as it was in the beginning, by fashioning a crude home, clothing and weapons. To Claire comes an appreciation of labor and of the manner in which her wealth and luxury, which she took so much for granted, has been handed down to her. She marvels at their pioneering into a miniature and hand-made civilization of their own.

Then comes love and conflict

JAMES STOCKMAN DIED AT WESTMINSTER

Former Smithers Man Resided Here a Short Time Before Going South

SMITHERS, Dec. 15. — Word was received here on Friday that James Stockman, a former well known resident of Smithers, was dangerously ill at New Westminster, and on Saturday morning news of his death was received by the secretary of the Odd-fellows' Lodge.

It was soon after he arrived at Prince Rupert that he was taken ill and had to give up his position with the railway.

He was a very active member

A Woman of Hammond

We know, of course, that quite a few people have a prejudice against canned milk. A number of them, through one way and another, learn that Pacific Milk is a different product to the canned milks they know. A woman living in Hammond writes: "It took me a long time to make up my mind to try Pacific Milk. I have used it over a month now and prefer it above even cream for baking."
