W. A. Mackenzie of Simalkameen, R. H. Pooley of Esquimalt, and J. W. Jones of South Okanagan are among the more outstanding members of the Conservative bloc in the House and any one of them may be the choice of the party caucus to take the place of the member for Vancouver who is defeated. There is also talk of going outside the elected members for a leader and of getting him a seat. That is hardly likely. however, in view of the present uncertain division of the parties.

will be called to meet in London probably on July 16, for the purpose of definitely settling the procedure to be adopted for putting the Dawes report into execution. What was possibly of still greater importance was the decision that the premiers would visit Geneva together at the opening of the assembly of the League of Nations in September next. The French premier left this
