FREE FIGHT FRENCH CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES

WHOLE CREW OF A JAPANESE STEAMER WAS LOST IN TERRIFIC STORM

Whole Japanese Crew Was Lost in Storm in North Atlantic Ocean

Raifuku Maru Capsized in Sight of Officers on Cunarder Homeric

NEW YORK, April 22.—Thirty-eight Japanese seamen, the entire crew of the freighter Raifuku Maru, perished in a raging storm in the North Atlantic when the ship foundered yesterday just as the Cunarder Tuscania and the White Star liner Homeric reached the scene but were unable to launch the lifeboats owing to the tremendous seas.

Wireless messages from the Homeric stated that the lifeboats of the freighter were smashed by the seas.

When the Homeric reached the scene the freighter was on her beam-ends with the crew in plain sight and immediately oil was pumped on to the water in an effort to smooth the seas, but the ill-fated vessel capsized, after which no life was seen on the wreckage or in the water.

GUGGENHEIMS MAY PURCHASE DUNWELL MINE

Color Lent to the Rumor by Fact that Premier Officials Examining It

OTTAWA, April 22.—Color is lent to the rumor that it is the Guggenheims who are the prospective purchasers of the Dunwell Mine at Stewart by the fact that the assistant manager of the Premier with a crew of experts are taking samples and preparing a report on the mine. The samples will be assayed and it will be some weeks yet before any decisions is arrived at as to the transfer of the mine.

R. T. Elliott, the intermediary in connection with the deal, engineered the sale of the Dunsmuir Mines to Sir William Mackenzie prior to the incorporation of the Canadian Collieries. He is reticent in regard to the matter but does not deny that the big mining financiers may be at the back of the deal.

SHIPOWNERS MADE A LOSS

Figures Submitted to the Committee on Ocean Rates Yesterday

OTTAWA, April 22.—Before the Ocean Rates committee of the House of Commons, which is considering the advisability of subsidizing a fleet of ten vessels in order to break the Atlantic shipping combine, figures were received from the shipping companies. These showed that in 1924 fifty-one cargoes of boats operating on the North Atlantic in the Canadian trade had a loss after charging depreciation amounting in all to $830,479. This worked out at $4,131 a voyage or $79.12 a day.

MURDERER WAS HANGED TODAY

LONDON, April 22.—Norman Thorne, the young Crowborough farmer who was convicted of the murder of Elsie Cameron, a London typist, was hanged this morning at Wandsworth jail.

GREEK BACHELOR WON AT EPSOM BY HALF A LENGTH

LONDON, April 22.—The horse "Greek Bachelor" won the Gily and Suburban handicap at Epsom today, coming in half a length ahead of Mademoiselle M. with D'Orsay, third, Tapin, a hot favorite, finished fourth. Eighteen horses started.

INDIAN FRACAS PORT ESSINGTON

"Peg Leg" Douglas Had Nose Broken and Will Lose Eye as Result of Racket Yesterday

Domestic troubles believed to have been the cause, an Indian named Douglas and commonly known as "Peg Leg" was attacked with an axe and seriously injured yesterday by another Indian named Arthur Stewart according to word received by the local provincial police office from Constable R. Gibson at Port Essington who has Stewart under arrest. The report states that Douglas was badly cut up and, in addition to having his nose broken, will probably lose an eye. A charge will be laid against Stewart on Douglas' recovery.

ALASKA IS ASKING FOR COAST SURVEY

Lighthouses and Blinks Need: Present Charts are Old Russian Ones

SEWARD, Alaska, April 22.—Congress will be asked at this session to have a survey made of the Alaskan coast and also to have lighthouses and blinkers established along the coast of southwestern Alaska. Capt. Johansen, master of the U.S. mail steamer Starr declared he was operating under Russian charts 500 years old.

NANTON WEAKER.

TORONTO, April 22.—Sir Augustus Nanton is sinking slowly. His condition is weaker today.

Workmen are shown getting ready for the children at the famous Wembley Stadium in London, by giving the wooden soldiers their spring uniforms with the aid of paint and brush.

GOES TO JAIL FOR A MONTH

American of Curious Occupation in London had Prominent Patients

LONDON, April 22.—Homer Tyrell Lane, an American psycho-analyst and lecturer, has been committed to jail for one month and ordered deported for contravention of the Alien Act. His was a very curious case and one that attracted a great deal of attention. An appeal is entered against the decision of the magistrate.

Lane had many patients among society people here, included among them being Lady Betty Balfour, Henry Herbert, Simons, Maynard Greville and Miss Etha de Villi. The Bishop of Liverpool also gave evidence on his behalf.

Lane's chief profession besides lecturing was treating people of abnormal mentality and especially those insane or partially so over religious or sexual matters.

KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY LOG

Jeffery McLeod of This City Lost Life at Ocean Falls

Word was received this morning by the provincial police telling of the death of Jeffery McLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm R. McLeod, 1236 Second Avenue West, who was killed yesterday when struck by a log in the Pacific Mills logging camp at Twin Lakes near Ocean Falls.

Deceased was very well known here, having come to the city with his parents in the early days. Most of the time he spent as a timber man in various parts of the district. He worked at Alice Arm during Dolly Varden railway construction days.

Besides his parents, deceased is also survived by a sister here, Miss Sarah McLeod. A brother was killed on active service in the war.

M. Avazoff arrived in the city from Vancouver on the Prince George this morning.

Free Fight in French Chamber of Deputies Election of President

PARIS, April 22.—Another of the periodic disturbances in the chamber of deputies took place here today. Fist fights occurred on the president's rostrum this afternoon during the second balloting for the presidency of the chamber when a member of the opposition, Deputy Balant, charged that "ten deputies voted twice."

Two Socialists broke through the protection offered to officials and then there followed a free fight of a most undignified character.

MEET ZANNI NEAR ATTU

American Coastguard Vessels May Co-operate With Argentine Flyer

KETCHIKAN, April 23.—It is very probable that the coast guard steamer Unalaga, which is following the seal herd north to Bering Sea, will meet Major Zanni, the Argentine flyer, in the vicinity of Attu and will act as a convoy for that part of the Pacific flight.

Negotiations have been in progress for some time with a view to having the American coastguard vessels, which go north at this time of year, co-operate in the flight.

PRINCE ALBERT IS TO BE SOLD

Vessel Formerly at Prince Rupert to be Auctioned to Satisfy Judgment

VANCOUVER, April 22.—In order to satisfy the judgment which awarded the Pacific Cable Company damages against the steamer Prince Albert for breaking the San Francisco-Honolulu cable it was ordered yesterday that the vessel be sold by auction.

The company claimed approximately $190,000 damages. Since the arrest of the vessel several months ago the Prince Albert has been held at Victoria harbor.

Police Deny That Unnecessary Force Was Used in Executing Distress Warrants on Doukhobors

NELSON, April 22.—When informed last night that the Doukhobors were demanding a commission of inquiry into the trouble at Grand Forks and were alleging that women and children were beaten by government officials, inspector W. R. Dunwoody, who was in charge of the provincial police who made the seizure of Doukhobor goods because of fines levied against members of the colony for failure to send their children to school, denied the charges of ill-treatment.

Dunwoody said he insisted that no more force than was absolutely necessary in executing the distress warrants should be used.

The complaint to Premier Mackenzie King and others: the Doukhobors likened the treatment of the provincial police to those in Russia during the Czar's regime.

Sir James Lougheed Thinks Election This Summer And Conservatives Have Chance

Sir James Lougheed of Calgary, senator and member of the federal cabinet for many years, is a visitor in the city today accompanied by his son, Clarence Lougheed, who is governor of the Gyro Club for District No. 8. They arrived from Vancouver on the Prince George this morning and will make the round trip to Anyox and return to Vancouver. Sir James said this morning that this trip was merely in the nature of a holiday. Jokingly he said that he had taken the opportunity to come and see the city on which the government had spent so many million dollars. This is his first trip here. Today he and his son were guests at the luncheon of the Gyro Club.

Asked about the federal political situation, Sir James said it was always hard to make prognostications, especially when one was on the outside, but he expected there would be an election this summer and he was not pessimistic as to the chances of the Conservative party to regain power.

ELEVATOR FOR PORT MANN BY NEXT AUTUMN

C. D. Howe, Who is Now Enroute to Prince Rupert Designing It

VANCOUVER, April 22.—By October a grain elevator with a capacity of 10,000 bushels will be ready for operation at Port Mann on the Fraser River just above New Westminster, according to word received here today.

This elevator, for which the New Westminster Harbor Board is permitted by order in council to issue $300,000 worth of bonds, is designed by C. D. Howe of Port William, who is now en route to Prince Rupert.

WILL PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Rideau Club Basketball Quintette on Way to Vancouver to Meet University

OTTAWA, April 22.—In quest of the Canadian senior basketball championship, the Rideau Athletic Club quintette left this morning for Vancouver where they will play the University of B.C. five on April 28 and 29.

The Rideaus are the champions of Eastern Canada and the matches will resolve themselves into a contest between East and West.

BUDGET DEBATE IS LONG DRAWN

OTTAWA, April 22.—The attempt of the Government to hurry up the budget debate and get through the business of the country in time for an early adjournment has been frustrated by the opposition and the debate still continues. It is hoped to have taken a vote on it tomorrow but this will not now be possible, it is thought, and it may be next week before the debate is closed.
