Elections Over And Business Calls.

Once more the elections are over and the Daily News extends its congratulations to the successful candidates. Those who are elected have a big year's work ahead of them. If this is to be the growing time, as we all believe it is, the interests of the city will need watching all the time both by the city council and by the educational and police departments. It is no sin to be elected to public office. It is an honor, but it carries with it much work.

There are always two big things to consider. One is to avoid running too deeply into debt and the other is to avoid dropping behind as a city. We have to be progressive and yet not extravagant. Doubtless this is the policy that will be followed, as it has in the past few years.

Why Are Women Not Considered Prominent?

Apparently women are not looked on as prominent citizens. When possible senators are being considered, women do not seem to be in the running. None have been appointed so far. Possibly the reason for the neglect is the fact that they usually do not control the purse strings. Money talks very loud, especially in politics, and the person without money does not usually get far.

Women do not often have much property or cash of their own. It is the men who do the business, although many rich people have owed their wealth to the saving habits of their wives. Women make men prominent but only a few become prominent themselves. They work in the background but their influence in the nation is just as great for all that.

Two Women Mentioned For Senatorship.

Two women are being mentioned as possibilities for the Senate just now. They are Mrs. Nellie McClung and Mrs. Judge Murphy, both of Edmonton. Both are well suited to the position, but the despatch which tells of the possibility adds that a man will probably get the position. The man in question is not known here, but the women both are. The reputations of Mrs. McClung and Mrs. Murphy have spread all over Canada. They are prominent citizens but not prominent enough, apparently to get the senatorship.

Punishment Delay Is Not A Credit.

It is not a credit to Canada to say that it took eighteen months to punish the murderer who was executed yesterday. It was shown that Chong Sam Bow of Vancouver murdered a white man in the summer of 1923 and yet it was only yesterday that he expired his crime on the gallows. That smacks too much of U.S. methods. An attempt is being made to delay the appeal of Dr. Boak but the appeal court has set itself against delay, stating that such was against the interests of justice.

Dogs A Nuisance In The City.

Complaint has been made to the Daily News that there are too many stray dogs in the city and that they are a nuisance. There seems to be justification for the complaint. Too many dogs are running at large around the streets and some are doing it contrary to law. It is particularly noticeable that there are more dogs to the square yard here than in any other city on the coast.

There are in the city many dog lovers and they would be the last in the world to wish the dogs to become a nuisance. If they are dog lovers, they are caring for their dogs and keeping them at home. To allow them to roam at will all the time is to have them become wild and unruly besides being a general nuisance. Possibly a hint of this kind will prevent the complaints going farther and resulting in any drastic action being taken which would be obnoxious to owners of canines.

BOULTBEE NEW PRESIDENT OF FARMERS' INST.

Following Election of Officers and other Business, Party Danced all night at Skidegate

BREAKFAST WALTZ 8 A.M.

G. H. Boultee is the new president of the East Coast Graham Island Farmers' Institute, his election taking place at the annual meeting held at Community Hall, Skidegate, recently. About 40 members were present from all up the coast and the election followed a big banquet. President Schaffer was in the chair and the event proved successful in every way. The complete list of officers follows:

President G. H. Boultee.
Vice-president, B. F. Roberts.
Sec.-Treas., G. D. P. Turner.
Directors: E. Richardson, Mrs. E. Richardson, Wm. Andrews.

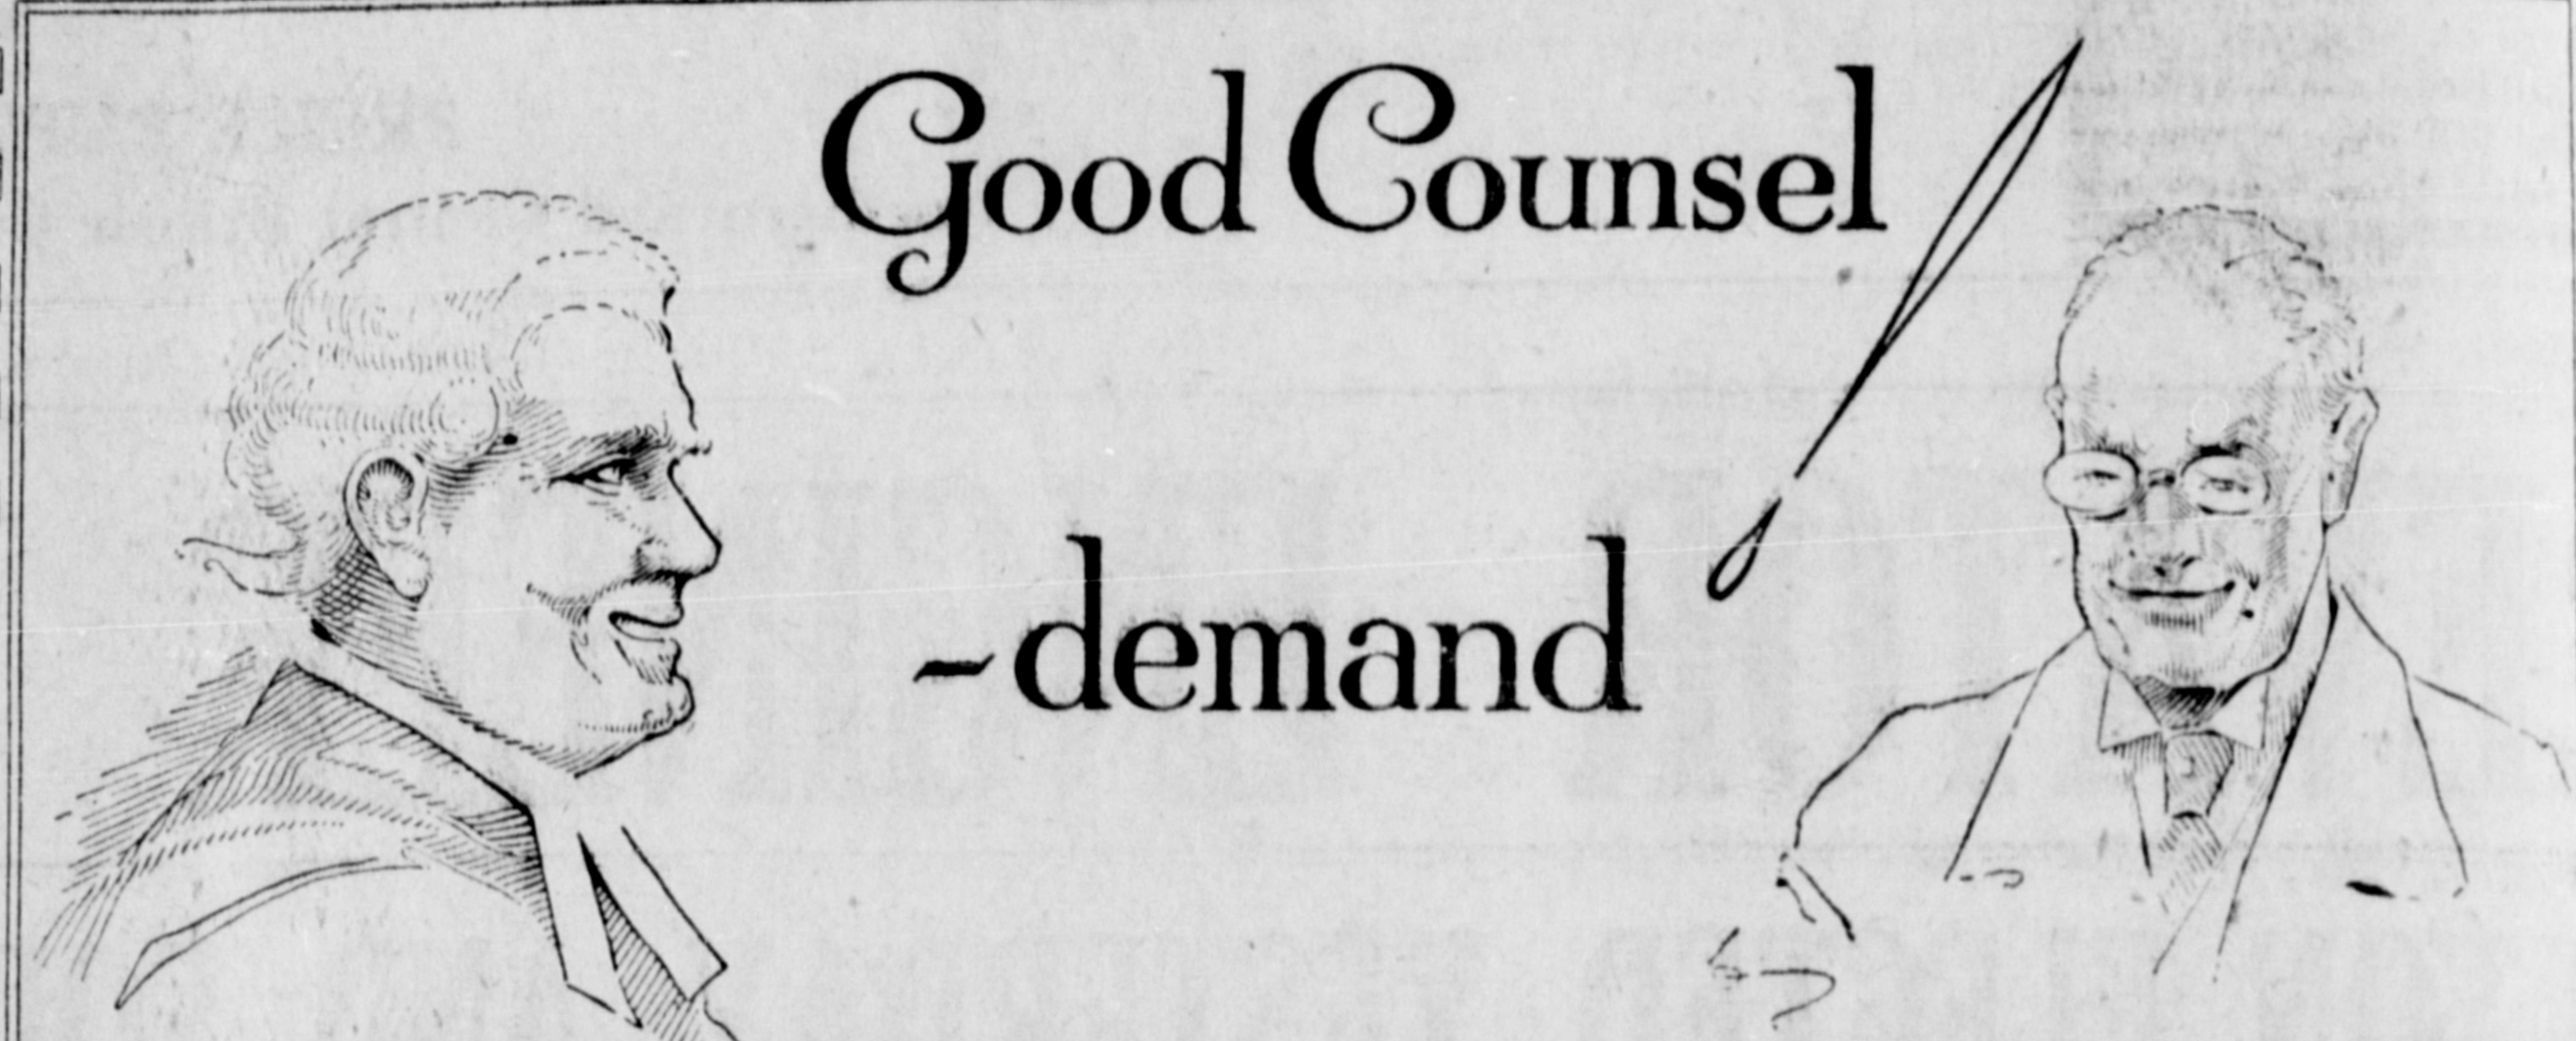

The annual report showed that financially the condition of the institute was sound, there being a balance on the right side.

After a discussion of various matters of business which lasted two hours, the hall was cleared and dancing commenced, and continued throughout the night, the breakfast waltz being played at 8 a.m.

Eric Richardson, pianist, had charge of the orchestra.

Mrs. N. Schaffer and Mrs. G. D. Pitt Turner had general charge of everything and at the close were accorded a hearty vote of thanks.

A PIPE DREAM

Editor Daily News.

Seeing some arguments in some Old Country papers in regard to Canada wanting separation, I must here say there is no force in the world so strong as the national spirit. It has a firmer and deeper grip on men's minds than anything else. Just as love was the first principle of family life and faith was the first principle of religion, so is the national spirit essential to the state. A national spirit is a force and is just as good to the state as it is to good government.

If our people in Canada were imbued, as they ought to be, with the true national spirit, with a true feeling of loyalty and of working for their fellow men and if we are a people deserving of any trust or any confidence at all, surely the day is not far distant when we will be trusted with the management of our own affairs in Canada. The present position, to my mind, is anything but satisfactory. The result will be that the affairs of Canada will drift more and more into the hands of professional politicians, the men who live by stirring up bad feeling and strife and agitation and draw most of their power and most of their votes from the people.

We are not Canadians at heart or have the welfare of the country at heart but by sheer force of circumstance the day is not far distant when there must be some devolution of Government. Then would be the opportunity for Canadians to see the franchise was so restricted that the people who got in power represented the country and the people in the country, not representing the Old Country. There has been so much of that in British Columbia lately. We must all join together in one Canadian spirit and the building up of our good Canadian town and our national spirit as Canadians.

WILL USE AIRPLANES GUARD BRITISH COAST AGAINST SMUGGLERS

First Attempt Ever Made to Patrol Whole Shoreline is to be Attempted

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Hundreds of miles of lonely stretches along the coastline of England and Scotland will shortly come under the eagle eye of the revenue department focused from the skies in an airplane. A fleet of machines has been added to the existing equipment to protect the northern and eastern Scottish coasts, long suspected of being the favorite stopping off places of international smugglers.

Patrolling the long coast line surrounding England, when almost every section is within a day's run from countries producing dutiable goods, has always been a problem for the British government except for the few intervals when the Liberal Free Trade party occupied Downing Street. In Victorian days only in the populous sections was any permanent endeavor made to guard the coast line against smugglers. Revenue ships often made circuits of the island, or bustled themselves in some locality suspected of harboring defaulters against Her Majesty's rightful duties, but daily patrolling of some 3,500 miles was not even attempted.

A HELPING HAND

He—Sh-h-h, don't move; maybe he can get that window up; it's the one we haven't been able to open since the painters left—Life.

"Clarence," she called. He stopped the car and looked around.
"I am not accustomed to call my chauffeurs by their first name, Clarence. What is your surname?"
"Darling, madam."
"Drive on, Clarence."

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

CHILDREN are not what they used to be and neither are parents.

SPEAKING in a general way, I should say that when people talk of a "prominent citizen" they refer to one who has accumulated enough of the needful to make him independent of criticism.

BLESSED are the rich for they shall accumulate.

COUNCILS may come and councils may go, but they go on talking for ever.

BEWARE of the alderman who is always rising and saying "Mr. Mayor."

If you break an egg it soon goes all to pieces. It's the same with a ten spot.

AT last it has come. A transparent umbrella has been invented. Very soon, if the thing proves a success, we shall be able to carry a holly up the street without knocking the hats off all our friends and we shall escape the danger of having our eyes prodded out by members of the fairer sex. Here's for the transparent.

THE argument ended yesterday.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 16, 1915.

Tourist traffic through this port will be very heavy this year it is predicted. Hundreds of reservations have already been booked on the Alaska boats and the Grand Trunk Pacific line promises to handle many sight-seers. Not being able to go to Europe on account of the war, many travellers will be coming this way.

Local retail merchants are offering Jap Oranges at 30c per box.

There was a meeting of local business men in the Continental Trust Co.'s office yesterday to prepare a petition for submission to H. S. Clements, M.P. with a view to securing certain advantages which will strengthen the city as a fishing centre. Those taking an active part in the proceedings included George L. Clayton, M. J. Robin, G. A. McNicholl, G. W. Nickerson, J. G. Scott, A. T. Broderick and Mr. Poole.

This Lassie Has Her Colds "Rubbed Away"

The mother of this attractive little girl, Mrs. E. E. Emmans, of 215 Seventh Ave., N. E., Portage La Prairie, Man., is one of the many Canadian mothers who are enthusiastic about the vaporizing salve, Vicks VapoRub, for treating children's colds. Mrs. Emmans writes: "My little girl had croup at night pretty badly and Vicks did her a lot of good. I have also used it with very satisfactory results for head and chest colds."
Vicks is just "rubbed on" for sore throat, tonsillitis, bronchitis, croup or deep chest colds. When so applied, Vicks has a double direct action; internally medicated vapors are inhaled while, at the same time, externally, it is absorbed through and stimulates the skin.
