SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service.

SMITHERS HOCKEY TEAM VICTORIOUS

Beat Telkwa in First Match of Season Wednesday Night: Will Tour to Other Towns

SMITHERS, Jan. 16. — The first hockey match of the season was played in town on Wednesday night between teams representing Telkwa and Smithers.

Some of the Telkwa boys live at points outside their town and they have not been able to have very much team practice whereas Smithers have been able to work together a number of times. This advantage showed in the game, Telkwa being unable to score against Smithers defence while the local boys scored almost at will.

With a little more practice however the Telkwa team should be able to give a better account of themselves and the hockey fans are looking forward to some interesting games between these teams.

Players taking part in the game were for Telkwa: W. Noonan, Geo, Murray, W. Ovens, E. Heal, W. Couldwell, A. Fors, J. Howson and Rev. Dovey.

For Smithers: P. Hoskins, C. Warner, N. Kilpatrick, L. Raabe, G. Rutter, Mutch and J. Graham.

Arrangements are now being made for the Smithers team to make a trip to Burns Lake and Prince George the latter part of next week playing two games in each town.

Sport Chat

Prince Rupert is about to lose one of its most popular athletes in the person of Art Easson, accountant in the local branch of the Royal Bank whose transfer to Vancouver was announced yesterday. For several years now Art has been one of the city's star baseball players with short as his regular position. He has also taken a keen though perhaps not as active part in other lines of sport. Apart from his value as a ball player, he has always been regarded as one of the "best fellows" in town and his departure will be a matter of much regret generally. When Art goes south next month, he will leave in Prince Rupert a host of friends and admirers who will sincerely hope that the future may see him back in Prince Rupert again with his saxophone and fiddle, his skill on which are not the least of his accomplishments.

Jack McMillan, the Vancouver billiard star, is now in the running for the Canadian English billiard championship. Last Saturday McMillan defeated Al Lush 1200 to 596 in the final match of the Vancouver eliminations and he will leave for Winnipeg at the end of this month to play in the semi-finals on February 5. The provincial champion was in brilliant form in his game on Saturday and is said to have put on the finest exhibition ever given in Vancouver. His high break was 153 and he also had another run of 122. Most of the points in the 153 break were obtained by close work at the top but he mixed in every stroke including a couple of difficult masses. Lush's high break was 71.
