COLLECTION OF INDIAN CURIOS

Museum Has Offer of Over Twelve Hundred Pieces For Small Sum

The museum board has an offer of another collection of Indian curios from a person living in southern British Columbia. This collection contains over 1200 pieces and the owner wants a nominal sum in payment. The offer will be considered by the board at its next meeting but it is hardly likely to be accepted as the board has at present practically no funds.

WATSON ARRIVES

Reaches Victoria From Seattle to Face Trial on Robbery Charge

VICTORIA, Feb. 18.—Ross C. Watson, suspected of complicity in the Nanaimo Bank robbery, arrived in Victoria yesterday to face trial. Watson was formerly a police detective in Seattle.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

SEX equality is when he works for her and she works him.

IT'S easy to be superior when your friends don't amount to much.

THERE'S something wrong with the C.N.R. today. I think some of the members of the staff were out last night.

A MAN is usually the master in his own house. He is the paymaster.

THIS is landlord's month. The owners of property get the highest rent per diem during February of any month of the year.

LENT begins next week and I intend to save myself some money. That's the way to turn everything to good account.

WHAT I like to see done easily the writer of a humor column in one paper adopts the best brain children from another paper but lets the ugly orphans die. It's so intensely human.

Thanks Be
THE modern maid
Adorns her face.
Wears dresses short
And goes the pace;
And now and then
She does a wiggle
But thank the Lord
She does not giggle.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 18, 1915.

Col. R. H. Thompson has arrived from Vancouver to confer with the Board of Trade and other local organizations regarding the price of waterfront land which it is claimed is too high.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature at Victoria to make it easier, under present financial stringency, for men to make payments due on lands.

The waters around Great Britain and Ireland, including the whole English Channel, have been declared a war zone by Germany after today and all shipping there in future, in-respective of the flag that may be flown, may be sunk without notice.
