TOPICS OF THE DAY

Tonight and Tomorrow Night, 7 and 9 p.m.

An adaptation of Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous story, "The Altar on the Hill." A story of any home today

—a story that runs as close to real life as life itself. A tale of loyalty, politics, romance, and of a boy who was true blue all through—even in the face of the greatest odds. A drama that aims at your heart and hits. No one can help but admire this wonderful kid who sacrificed all he held dear for the follies of others. Gorgeous costumes, mag-

THE COUGH OR COLD THAT SETTLES ON THE LUNGS IS HARD TO GET RID OF

These are the kind that are dangerous; the kind that weaken the lungs, the kind that allow the germs of consumption to l get a foothold in the system. Mr. John E. Luloff, Golden Lake, Ont., writes:--"Last year I had a cold, and a died at 6.25 this morning in the cough which seemed to stick on my chest, Prince Rupert General Hospital I tried different preparations, but they did in the person of Albert Braman not seem to help me any. I was advised,

The proposal is that, once the hotel as been built by private capital, the railway company would lease and operate it in connection with; the railways.

MANSON PLEASED AT ACTION OF OTTAWA

Other Provinces Falling in Line With B.C. Affects Situation

VICTORIA, Feb. 18 .- Attorney General Manson is pleased with the outlook for handling the liquor problem more effectively as a result of the proposed legislation of the Dominion government to prevent importation into a province where sales are controlled by the government. It should prevent private importation into B.C.

The law will not affect export houses as they do not technically mport liquor. It simply passes brough the province in bond.
