What A Difference Sunshine Makes!

What a difference it makes to the world when all is bright. On a dull day we feel gloom and depressed and when the sun shines we forget the dull times and take joy in the fact that we are alive.

So it is throughout life. Everyone can spread a little sunshine and make the world a pleasanter place in which to live. By trying to be pleasant and unselfish we increase our own enjoyment as well as the enjoyment of those around us.

This Is A Sermon On Evergreens.

This is a country of evergreens. Practically all the trees of the forest are evergreen. The deciduous varieties do not seem to thrive here except if be the alders and a few shrubs. As you get away from the coast the cottonwood and the birch and other trees are more common.

The trees that shed their leaves in the autumn are cheery in the spring, shady in the summer and brilliant in the autumn and during the winter, after they have shed their leaves they are useless. On the other hand the evergreens never look very brilliant but they are almost always the same and in winter the green stands out as a shelter and as an emblem of continuity.

What would the world be without the evergreens in life? There are the brilliant people who flit past us, cheering us as they go but not remaining. There are the friends who are always the same, who bear with us in our moods and refuse to be cast down even in time of affliction. These are the evergreens of life. These are the real friends who stick by us. Let us be thankful for the evergreens. The world would be but an empty place without them.

Value Of Hospital To The Community.

On several occasions this paper has mentioned the value of the hospital to the community but it cannot be said too often. Those who do not often visit the hospital cannot quite understand the wonderful work it is doing. Patients who come home after an illness speak of the work of the splendid women who care for them there and of the loss it would be if that work was in any way impaired through lack of funds. We have our institutions of learning, of recreation and amusement, and of culture but here is the one to which we turn when all other fail to help us.

Looking Forward To Outdoor Life.

This is the time of year when we tire of winter sports and amusements and turn to the outdoors. It is too early to take advantage of much boating or hiking or any other form of outdoor life but there are always preparations to be made for the change. Boats have to be overhauled, fishing tackle looked up, baseball bats ordered and lacrosse sticks restrung. It is the season of looking forward to the pleasant days to come and now and then stealing a pleasant day as it passes.

"Worth $100 to Me Relieved Eczema and Piles"

Mrs. Peter A. Palmer, Saltburn, Sask., writes:

"Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely relieved me of eczema and piles. I also used this Ointment for my baby, who broke out in eczema. A few applications were all that was necessary in her case. Dr. Chase's Ointment has been worth a hundred dollars to me, before using it I had spent a great deal more than that in unsuccessful treatment from doctors. We have also used Dr. Chase's other medicines, the Nerve Food having restored my health after suffering from severe nerve trouble when a girl."

IDLE TONGUES TO BE SHOWN HERE TONIGHT

Picture Illustrates Evil of Idle
Gossip and Has Proved Sensation

"Idle Tongues" will make mischief here tonight. The picture of that name will be shown at the Westholme and if the criterion of other places is anything to guide here it should be well attended and useful.

There is the small town meeting, the usual cowardice of the crowd and the bravery of the few. Tongues wag and eventually the crowd turns on the man who is a confessed thief and drives him away. Eventually the alleged guilty man is found to be innocent; the idle tongues cease to wag and all the tangles of the tale are straightened out.

BEAUTIFUL GLORIA SWANSON HERE AGAIN

This Time She is Carmelita,
Daughter of a French
Regiment

The Foreign Legion! What a glamorous thrill, what an epitome of adventure, what swift-winged flights of imagination those three dauntless words flaunt before our tranquil lives. Three words whose full significance seems to have been vividly plucked from the ideally symbolic tricolor of France itself, and planted in the corner of a foreign land that is for ever all the world's own monument to courage.

It is about these intrepid legionnaires, recruited from the far corners of the earth, and of whom it is said, "The folds of their flag are not broad enough to hold their claims to glory," that the new Paramount picture, "Wages of Virtue," is woven—or, rather, about Carmelita, beautiful young daughter of the regiment.

Gloria Swanson plays Carmelita, an Italian girl who becomes the pride of the Legion.

"Wages of Virtue," is a heart-rending romance of an Algerian barrack town. Carmelita is rescued from death by Luigi, strong man with a small, travelling side-show. He kills a man over love for the girl and joins the Foreign Legion to escape punishment for his crime. The girl, with absolute faith in him, follows and opens a cafe in town.

Falls in Love
Carmelita meets and falls in love with a young American recruit, John Boule, a veteran of the regiment, sees that Luigi is not true to the girl and tells her so.

Luigi is furious over the girl's new love affair. He and the American fight, and Luigi is stabbed in the back by a legionnaire who has long nursed a grudge against the regimental bully.

Carmelita knows that the American will be accused of the crime, and with Boule's help they manage to escape into the desert, where they are attacked by a small band of Arabs.

The story has plenty of action and heart interest.

WHITE MOTH TALE GAY PARISIAN LIFE

Famous Society Drama to be Shown Here at Week End is Also Romance

"The White Moth," a First National picture coming at the week end, offers exceptional screen entertainment and marks a signal achievement for Maurice Tourneur, the director, and the artists who enact it.

It is a beautiful, fantastic, absorbing piece of cinema entertainment revolving around the gay night life of Paris and the whirl of society in New York.

Barbara La Marr, as The White Moth, an American girl who becomes the dancing sensation of the Paris stage, with a legion of suitors, was never better cast, and Conway Tearle, co-featured with her as a millionaire who marries her to stop the romance of his brother, gives a powerful performance.

The White Moth in reality is a little choir singer who has left her home in Kansas to study music abroad. Failing to realize her ambition, she is about to commit suicide when Gonzalo Montez, known as El Volcano, a dancer of the Folies Royales, rescues her and induces her to become his partner. Their subsequent success is beyond her wildest dreams, and at its peak the extraordinary romance with the two American brothers develops.

Ben Lyon gives a fine delineation as the younger brother, whose amour receives such an unexpected setback.

Charles de Roche is convincing as El Volcano, and the other players who contribute materially to the success of the production are Edna Murphy, Josie Sedgwick, Kathleen Kirkham, and William Orlamond.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

A MAN may have business down town at night, but not without his wife.

It is difficult to imagine anyone with a poker face enthusing over holding his best girl's hand.

"I AScribe the prosperity of Prince Rupert very largely to climatic conditions," said the professor. Yes, it's the climate!

THERE'S one thing about life here, we do not seem to be bothered much with seed catalogues.

WHEN a man tells you he has a gilt edge proposition that is sure to return you thirty per cent per annum on your investment you can call him any kind of a liar you like and still be within the bounds of veracity.

NEVER marry for a meal ticket. That kind of a meal does not taste very good.

MOTORBOATING is a continuous adventure. The fascination of the game is that you never can tell when the engine is going to stop, and you are not dead sure when it is going to start.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 23, 1915.

It being claimed that the new amendments to the Municipal Act being proposed at Victoria would put this city in an awkward position as far as the issuance of long term debentures is concerned, the city council decided last night, on advice of City Solicitor Fred Peters, to telegraph William J. Manson, M.P.P., requesting him to look after Prince Rupert's best interests on the matter.

A delegation consisting of G. W. Morrow, Father Buno and Rev. H. B. Grant appeared before the city council last evening to request the city to grant $800 towards furnishing a field kitchen outfit for the men of the second contingent going from Prince Rupert on active service. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

Speaking before the Prince Rupert Horticultural Society last night, A. H. Tomlinson, provincial horticulturalist for this district, urged that vacant lots in this city be turned into profitable garden patches.

For Variety in Your Cooking Use OXO CUBES

For all sorts of dishes

Soups, sauces, gravies, meat pies, curries, and savoury dishes are as nourishing and tasty when made with OXO, as when meat is used. And OXO is quicker, handier, and more economical.

For what-was-left-over from yesterday

OXO Beef Cubes enable you to provide new dishes, and to improve old ones. You need never be at a loss for a dish—with OXO Cubes. They are made from prime concentrated beef, and give nourishment and the rich beef-flavor to savoury dishes made from "leftovers".

For saving time and trouble

Make cooking easy with OXO Cubes. They save time, trouble, and money, too.

OXO and Cheese Toast

1 OXO Cube
Pepper and Salt
Crusts of Bread
A little butter
3 tablespoonsful grated cheese.

Dissolve the OXO in a little hot water. Put the butter and grated cheese into a small stewpan, and pepper and salt. When dissolved, add enough crumbs of bread to form the mixture into a cream. Serve on hot buttered toast.

OXO Soup

Chop an onion, turnip, small carrot, little celery and parsley, put into 2 quarts of cold water, bring to the boil and simmer for ½ hour. Add 3 OXO Cubes, season to taste and serve.

OXO Spaghetti Pie

Boil half a packet of spaghetti till tender. Chop an onion, mix with ½ lb. Hamburger steak, fry till partly cooked, then put with spaghetti in pie dish, season to taste. Mix 2 OXO Cubes with little hot water, add can of tomatoes, and put over meat. Mash any cold cooked potatoes, spread on top and bake a nice brown.

OXO Meat Patties

Scraps of Cold Meat or Poultry
2 Cubes OXO
A Little Parsley
Sauce and Seasoning
Some flour paste

Mince the meat and make it savoury with the sauce, etc. Line some patty pans with the paste, fill with the mince, add the OXO to half a cup of boiling water, and add a little to each pan. Put on the tops, and bake till pastry is done. A little egg may be brushed over the tops if desired.

Little Tommy Tomkins' Painting Book.

The children will be delighted to have it. Sent on receipt of four OXO Cube wrappers.
