SONS OF CANADA WON EASY GAME

Gyro Club in Poor Form at Baseball Last Night and Lost by Score of Nine to One

Effective pitching by Alex Roy and good support by his team mates together with consistent hitting, won last night's Senior League baseball game for the Sons of Canada over the Gyro Club by a score of 9 to 1. The Canucks were in good form but the Gyros were just the opposite and the game for them was a distinct washout. It lasted only five innings. Foley, who opened in the box for the Gyro Club, was freely hit and he was taken out in the third inning and replaced by Teddy Tite. The Canucks made eleven hits, including home runs by Vic Menzies and Dave Balfour and a flock of two baggers. The Gyros are credited with only one hit. Alex. Roy fanned eleven men while the Gyro hurlers, according to the box score, had no strikeouts.

The box score:

RAINS DELAY GAMES TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Good Exhibition Last Night at Acropolis Courts When Carmichael Beat Marintette

There was a nice exhibition of good tennis at the Acropolis courts last evening when Carmichael played Marintette in the men's singles in connection with the tournament now going on. A number of spectators were watching the play which ended in victory for Carmichael.

The bad weather has delayed the tournament considerably and players are being urged to take every possible opportunity to get their games played. Following are some of the results so far:

Carmichael beat Marintette 4-6, 6-0, 9-7.
Black beat Patmore 6-4, 6-2.
Wyles beat McMordie 6-4, 6-2.
Miss Irwin beat Miss Long and Miss Hitchins 6-3, 6-8, 6-2.
McMaster and Hastie beat McMordie and Fisher 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

PRETTY WEDDING AT QUEEN CHARLOTTES

Miss Rose Rudge Becomes Bride of C. Bruce at Sandspit, Rev. J. Gillett Officiating

SKIDEGATE, June 20.—A very pretty wedding took place at Sandspit, Queen Charlotte Islands, recently when Miss Rose Rudge became the bride of C. Bruce, both of this district, Rev. R. J. Gillett, Anglican missionary, officiating. The ceremony took place in the public school, all the old time residents of the east coast being present for the auspicious occasion.

The pretty bridesmaids were Misses Margaret and May Rudge while the groomsman was Angus McCullough.

After the ceremony a banquet was served at the bride's home under the direction of Mrs. Walter Rudge, mother of the bride, and Mrs. N. Schafer, mother of the groom and there was much merriment and many toasts. At the school later in the evening a dance was held which was kept up until the early hours of the morning. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Gillett of Massett, Captain and Mrs. G. B. Gillatt of Sandspit, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mathers, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pallant, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hann, Mr. and Mrs. Kitson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. G. Jolliffe, Angus McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. E. C. Stevens and family, Miss Alma Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Pitt Turner, Mr. and Mrs. N. Schafer, and many others.

The bride's grandparents were very well known in Northern B.C. Both were pioneers. E. P. Rudge came from St. John, New Brunswick, and settled in Victoria. E. C. Stevens came from Nova Scotia to Victoria in the sixties by way of the Panama Canal and remaining in the south a short time came north.

The visitors were taken to Sandspit from Queen Charlotte on the survey boat Etilda and from Skidegate by Rev. J. Gillett on the mission boat.

MANY INDIANS FOR CANNERIES ARRIVE

Prince John Brought Large Number of Natives From Queen Charlotte Islands Yesterday

Of the 140 passengers who arrived in the city from Queen Charlotte Island points on the Prince John yesterday afternoon, a large number were Indians who will be employed in Skeena River canneries. Some are going to Oceanic, Port Edward and the Somerville floating cannery while one large party which arrived in charge of Alfred Adams of Massett is bound for Sunnyside. Mr. Adams will remain in the city for a few days and will proceed by gasboat to North Island where he is operating a store.

PRINCE JOHN IN

C.N.R. Steamer Arrives With Heavy Passenger List—Much Freight For Islands

After an uneventful voyage from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands C.N.R. steamer Prince John arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The vessel left Vancouver early Sunday morning so was about 5½ days making the voyage. She had heavy freight cargo for Island points and brought 140 passengers here. The vessel will sail on her return south by the same route at 8 o'clock tonight. Capt. E. Mabbs is again in command of the John. Capt. Neil McLean will be on the Prince Charles when that vessel enters service on the Vancouver-Prince Rupert run next week.

G. W. Nickerson Tells of Correspondence With Railway Head in Regard to Tourist Rates

W. G. Nickerson was complimented by the council of the board of trade yesterday on the letter he had written in reply to attacks made on this city.

Mr. Nickerson told of correspondence which had passed between himself and the heads of the railway in regard to excursion rate to Prince Rupert from the East and said he had now taken the matter up with Fred Stork.

TALK IMMIGRATION WITH THE DIRECTOR

Question of Placing Land on Market is Also to be Discussed by Board of Trade

The Board of Trade has received word that Dr. Black, director of immigration for the Canadian National, and A. E. Field of the land department are to visit Prince Rupert the first week in July. It was decided at a meeting yesterday to have a committee of the board meet the visitors and talk over the immigration possibilities of the district and take up with Mr. Field the possibility of placing some of the land held by the company on the market.

HAD BAD SPELLS WITH HER HEART

Mrs. C. Martin, D.D. No. 2, Orillia, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled with my heart for a long time and very often had bad spells with it. I would take fainting spells, and my husband had to have somebody to stay with me all the time. He got me everything he could think of to see if they would do me any good, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend was in to see me and advised me to try
