Change of Command War Against Riffians by France After Loss

PARIS, July 6. - Supreme Command of the Morroccan troops is to be taken from Marshal Pyautey, Governor General of Morrocco, and entrusted to some other general, probably General Guillaumat, who leaves immediately for the front.

Reports from Morrocco received here today, which have caused the sudden change in the plans of the war department, state that Abdel Krimis, head of the invading Riffian tribesmen, development in the north, Mr. at 11.10c and 6c. is scoring more successes along the battle line, one of the causes Kastner said that the Mayo camp Unimak, 7,000, to Booth Fish- ing arrangements for a supply of threatens the halibut business at this port. heretofore have supported the French.
