Somebody has said that the first duty of a captain is to win school; special Assistance to the toss. My own belief is that the duties of a captain, and his schools in pioneer districts, and most important duties, begins long before he spins the coin. First he must rouse team spirit in his men. One winger pupils' fees to high schools were loses confidence in his inside man and refuses to pass to hun. among the benefits to be derived ite shoots at goal himself, centres direct, swings the ball out from a change in the system of when it ought to be kept close-in fact, does everything except
