SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service.

BRINGING UP FATHER

POLICE BOARD IS SATISFIED

Final Meeting of Year Yesterday Afternoon Developed into Love Feast

The final meeting of the 1924 police commission held yesterday afternoon in the city council chamber developed into a love feast in the course of which the mayor and his two commissioners mutually congratulated themselves on the amicable relations that had existed between them, complimented the police force on the effectiveness of its work and came to the conclusion that Prince Rupert, all contrary reports notwithstanding, compared favorably with any other city of its size in the province from the standpoint of law and order.

Commissioner Montgomery set the eulogistic ball rolling when he referred to the harmony that had prevailed in the commission during the year and expressed regret that Commissioner Cameron was withdrawing. He hoped that his fellow commissioner next year would be as capable a partner. The same remarks he had made with respect to Commissioner Cameron also held good for the mayor and he hoped and wished that he would remain the head of the commission next year.

Mayor Newton expressed his thanks for the kindly sentiment that had been voiced by Commissioner Montgomery and reiterated the statements that had been made as far as Commissioner Cameron was concerned.

Commissioner Cameron, in voicing his thanks, stated that it had been a pleasure for him to sit on the police board for two years. He was sorry that he had found it impossible to occupy the post another year. He was of the opinion that police administration was being as effectively carried out now as it had ever been in the city and he wished to compliment the chief and his staff on their attention to duty.

Mayor Newton endorsed the statements of Commissioner Cameron as far as the police force was concerned. Never once had he taken a suggestion to the force but it was received and acted upon.

Commissioner Montgomery said that he had not intended to go so far as complimenting the force but he had no criticism to offer. The city was perhaps not all that it should be from this aspect but it was as good, he felt, as any town of a similar size and position in the province. He believed the force had done the best it could under existing conditions and, when one took into consideration how it was trammelled by laws and acts, wonder might arise that it had done as well as it had. He hoped however, that still better results might yet be obtained.

Sport Chat

The latest in sport disease is tennis elbow and Walter Stewart Nuthall, a London tennis star, has died of it. The average tennis player need not worry, however, for expert medical opinion asserts that the disease is not fatal unless complications set in. Tennis elbow, it is explained, is something like Charley Horse in baseball. Through over-exertion, aggravated by a cold, the tendons and muscles of the elbow became affected and need careful massage and rest. Exactly what happened to Nuthall it is difficult to state at this distance but, in any case, an operation had to be performed and this seems to have been the direct couse of his death.

George McIlmoyle (Billiard Parlor) vs. Don Brown (Grotto).

B. Jelich vs .Bert Morgan.

Art Fasson vs. J. Hillman.
