EASTER MUSIC ALL CHURCHES

Special Services Appropriate to Season With Large Congregations General

Easter Sunday was observed in a bright and fitting manner by all the city churches yesterday. Seasonal decorations made very effective settings and there were large congregations both at the morning and evening services. Special musical programs were rendered and appropriate sermons were delivered by the various clergymen in charge.

At the Methodist Church in the morning a reception service was held and twenty-four young people were received as members of the congregation while the names of nineteen adults were also added to the roll. Rev. George G. Hacker, in delivering an address, stressed the fact that doctrine was not necessary so much on such an occasion as a true desire to live a Christian life. He pointed out that the reception service was the crowning event of much special effort on the part of the Sunday School teachers and the Young People's Workers who had carefully instructed the young in Christian principles. A special effort had been made during Lent by visiting speakers.

In the evening there was a congregational song service and a special Easter message was delivered. At the Sunday School session in the afternoon, John E. Davey sang "My Task." The church was completely filled at both morning and evening services.

Presbyterian Church

Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant addressed large congregations morning and evening in the Presbyterian Church. The morning subject was "An Easter Message" and in the evening, "The Resurrection." There were solos in the morning by Miss N. Johnstone and S. K. Campbell with John E. Davey as organist. In the evening the choir sang the anthem "Christ our Passover," Mrs. L. O. Larsen sang a solo "My Faith in Thee," and S. K. Campbell and Mrs. H. C. Fraser a duet, "There is a Beautiful Land," with Mrs. R. A. Harlow as organist. The soloist in the anthem was S. K. Campbell and the members of the quartette were Mrs. L. O. Larsen, Mrs. H. C. Fraser, S. K. Campbell and H. H. Little.

Lutheran Church

The Metropole Hall was specially decorated for the services of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church. In the morning there was communion service and reception of members and in the evening there was a special Easter program by the Sunday School and choir, this being well received by a congregation which crowded the hall. Rev. P. E. Baisler preached suitably at both services and the offerings of the day will be placed in the building fund.

Salvation Army

Staff Captain Carruthers of Wrangell conducted special Easter services at the Salvation Army citadel. The feature of the evening's proceedings was the commissioning of local officers for the coming year and also the band. Certificates to the corps of cadets were issued, Misses Edith Leek and Winnie Exley receiving first class with honors; Edward Harmon, first class, and Henry Goglin, second class. There was special music and the hall was prettily decorated.

Baptist Church

There were unique services both morning and evening in the Baptist Church which was beautifully decorated. The younger members of the congregation participated actively. In the morning the primary department gave the message of the Easter Flowers and the Mission Band, the message of the Daffodils. There were three readings—"The Light in Jerusalem," by Miss Thelma Bunn; "The Light in India," by Miss Irene Morrison; and "The Light in Bolivia," by Miss Bessie Derry. The feature of the evening was a scripture reading by the girls of the Sunbeam Class. Soloists were S. C. Jackson of Digby Island and Miss Catherine Jones. Rev. E. G. Turner, the pastor, gave addresses at both morning and evening services.

Anglican Church

The four services in St. Andrew's Anglican Church had a sentimental interest about them for they were the last that will be held in the old building. In each case there were large congregations, the building being filled to overflowing at the morning service. The decorations were unusually fine and the music was splendid. Soloists of the day were Mrs. Ackroyd, Max Collison, W. E. Fisher and R. V. G. Lepine. Miss Marjorie Lancaster presided at the organ and special comment was made as to the excellence of her voluntaries. In the evening Archdeacon G. A. Rix, who officiated at all the services of the day, gave a resume of the work that had been carried out in the old church and set forth hopes for better things that would be accomplished in the new.

Catholic Church

The Catholic Church also had special Easter services. Bishop Bunoz officiated at the 10.30 service and Father McGrath at 8 in the morning and 7.30 in the evening. The music by augmented choirs under the direction of Charles Balagno was of unusual excellence. At the early service the music was by the junior choir of 65 members. At half past ten the Senior choir gave "Haec Dies" by Bordese; "Kyrie and Credo" from the Mass in Honor of the Immaculate Conception by Wigand; "Gloria and Sanctus," "Benedictus," and "Agnus Dei" from the Convent Mass by Gounod; "Regina Coeli" by Mine. The senior choir sang in the evening "O Salutaris" by Gounod; "Regina Coeli" by Mine; "Tantum Ergo" by Edward Marzo. The soloists at the services were Misses Blanche and Grace Curtin, Mrs. Hubert Ward, J. Sabourin, J. Couture, H. Astori and Mrs. J. J. Muldoon, Charles Balagno was organist.

JOIN ANGLICANS CHURCH OPENING

Presbyterians and Methodists Hold no Services Next Sunday Morning is Announced

Rev. H. R. Grant yesterday announced at both services that the Presbyterian Church would be closed next Sunday morning and that the congregation would, so far as possible, attend the opening of the new Anglican Church. He spoke of the spirit of co-operation which existed between the churches and expressed great pleasure at the fact that the Anglicans were opening their new church the same year as themselves.

Last night the Methodist Church board met and decided to withdraw the next Sunday morning service in honor of the Anglican opening on that day.
