By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK.—It is sad to see Manager Al Lopez in the towel and, in effect, concede that Cleveland Indians are out of the American League race.

Announcement came the day in the form of the benching of Ray (Ike) Brown, the regular shortstop. From here on, the Indians will play out their season and the Yankees will have to divvy up their pennant world series pot.

It is sad, so far as the Indians are concerned, that the Yankees would be out of the way and that his team would be taken, in a manner speaking, by George M. Steinbrenner, who recently obtained from the Yankees.

Thailand May Take Trout from Quebec

QUEBEC (CP)—Prince Chumloth of Bangkok and his wife were introduced to trout fishing in the Laurentides Park after attending the International Red Cross Conference at Toronto this summer.

The Royal couple enjoyed good fishing for a week, and a fish and game department official said Prince Chumloth had inquired about possibilities of flying Quebec speckled trout to Thailand, where they would be placed in rivers and streams. While no formal request was made, the official said trout eggs near the hatching stage could be shipped in ice to Thailand as salmon eggs were flown to France some months ago.

JUNIOR CHAMP—Lea Windsor of Halifax, N.S., won the 1952 Canadian Junior Golf Championship at Vancouver's Capilano course. The 18-year-old Maritimer shot rounds of 75 and 77, three strokes better in the 36-hole event than John McClung of Edmonton and Jerry Knechtel of Kitchener, Ont., who tied for second place. FORMER COACH — J. Percy Page of Edmonton, famed basketball coach, stepped from one career into another when he retired this summer after 40 years teaching. He re-entered Alberta politics as a Progressive Conservative and was elected to the legislature from Edmonton in the Aug. 5 provincial election—one of two Conservatives elected. An independent member of the legislature from 1940 to 1948 and principal of a commercial high school, Mr. Page is best known as the coach of the Edmonton Grads basketball team, an aggregation of high school girls which won four Olympic titles and held a near-monopoly on international women's basketball championships for almost 25 years. The team disbanded in 1940. (CP Photo)

Expert Renovating Famous Old Chairs

NEW GLASGOW, N.S. (P)—The famous chairs of Charlottetown, on which the Fathers of Confederation sat while working out the union of Canada, will be repaired in this town.

A native of Prince Edward Island, Preston Fraser, was engaged for the delicate task. Decision to restore the seats as nearly as possible to their original condition was reached by Premier Walter Jones of Prince Edward Island in consultation with Fraser.

There are 50 of the chairs, that were delivered to His Majesty's Government at Charlottetown more than a century ago. They are being moved by truck to Fraser's workshop here. The three heavy Confederation tables however will be refinished at Charlottetown because of danger of damage in transit.

Stalwart Pitching Wins Twin Bill for Yankees

NEW YORK (P)—Thanks to the stalwart pitching by three moundsmen, two of them former National League players, New York Yankees blanked Boston Red Sox twice in the American League day-light doubleheader Tuesday, 5-0 and 4-0.

The double triumph increased Yanks' lead to 3½ games over idle Cleveland Indians.

Rookie Tommy Gorman twirled an eight-hitter in the opening game. In the nightcap, Ells Blackwell and Johnny Sain a pair of veteran right-handers plucked from the National League, combined to shut out the Red Sox with five hits.

Victories extended the Yankee win streak to five straight. Sox have lost seven of their last eight and have scored only once in their 36 innings. They are 8½ games off the pace.

Blackwell, purchased from Cincinnati Reds last week, permitted four singles in five innings in his first start for the world champions. He tired in the humidity and was removed for pinch hitter Sain who finished, allowing one more single.

NATIONALS Brooklyn Dodgers may be a cinch to win the National League pennant but they performed like novices in dropping a night doubleheader to Philadelphia Phillies.

The Phils slaughtered Brooklyn twice with a combination of brilliant pitching and long ball hitting. Robin Roberts won
