FIRE BRIGADE FOR SMITHERS

New Organization Being Formed Under J. S. Kennedy at Interior Centre

SMITHERS, May 23. — Active steps to form a volunteer fire brigade for Smithers were started on Wednesday afternoon at a meeting held in the Municipal Office, when, at the request of the village commissioners, the business men of town gathered to discuss this question. It was unanimously agreed that immediate action hould be taken to overhaul and make additions to the fire fighting equipment now on hand. To make this possible the commissioners agreed to provide a house for the chemical wagons and to purchase additional ladders, buckets and other necessary apparatus.

In the selection of a fire chief to organize and take charge of a volunteer fire brigade. The unanimous choice was J. S. Kennedy who has acted in this capacity before in Smithers. The new chief started right in on his duties after the meeting and took stock of the present equipment and listed the stuff that will have to be purchased. He also started enlisting volunteers for the fire brigade and is receiving good response from the men of the town, who all express a willingness to help in this respect.

ANYOX CHILDREN MAKE A BIG HIT ANGLICAN CONCERT

No Grownups Took Part Except as Accompanists and Orchestra

ANYOX, May 22.—Those who attended the children's concert under the auspices of the Anglican Church a few nights ago, were as greatly surprised as they were pleased not only with the excellence of the entertainment but with the variety of talent demonstrated. There wasn't a grown up who had anything to do with it except the accompanists and orchestra which played several overtures. Opening the evening's program, the Elks' Orchestra, already a favorite institution, won fresh praise for their selections. The second item was a song by a quartette of boys, John Gillis, Lawrence Kirby, Sidney Armstrong and Walter Johnson, who have been undergoing intensive training under the leadership of Frank Dresser for some time. They received well merited encores. Following this number, the Misses Tess Gordon, Vera Eve and Patricia O'Neill danced "La Cantana" with a spirit that would be hard to excel anywhere. All three girls were particularly graceful. A treat was the reciting of Miss Hattie Young. Little Miss Young is a new comer to Anyox, but she will be a welcome contributor to future entertainments. Toe dancing was demonstrated by Misses Edna Herrin, Flo Kelley, Dora Grigg and Jean Robertson, while Frances Kelley did the "Pas De Seul" and had to repeat it.

At the piano, Miss Pearl Jago showed considerable talent, as did Christina McLeod with her violin playing. Both these young lady contributors had to respond to encores. The "Benita Caprice" was danced by the Misses Dora Grigg, Joan Whelan, Dorothy Dodd, Audrey McMillan, Nan Dunn, Helen Simpson, Jean Robertson, and Hattie Young. Flo Kelley did an interpretive dance called "Joy"; Tess Gordon and chorus did a 'sailor's hornpipe and sang a sea song; Dora Grigg, Hattie Young and Jean Robertson were seen on a Japanese dance, while "Pierette At Play" was the occasion for Mrs. Kelley's senior class of dancers to exhibit their accomplishments. The Misses Vera Eve, Hazel Dwyer, Tes Gordon, P. O'Neill, Kathleen Eve, Flo Kelley, Edna Herrin and Agnes Kruzick were seen in this number, which was splendidly executed, and won a lot of applause. Two other numbers by Mr. Dresser's boys were also given, while Alex. Cameron and Jimmie Foxley put on a duo which was introduced into the program at the last minute, and they made a big hit.

Mrs. Ringstad and daughters, Geraldine and Jeanette, were passengers on the Princess Beatrice this morning bound from Bellingham to Port Edward where Mr. Ringstad is manager of the Pacific American Fisheries Co.'s cannery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Christiansen, ofrmerly of this city, and family were arrivals from Selma, California, on the Princess Beatrice this morning. They are staying at the Prince Rupert Hotel.
