Capt. Larson and Party Arrive on Polar Bear After Interest-

"We sure had a great trip up the coast and met with wonderful hospitality at all points" said Captain Louis Larson upon his arrival in port yesterday evening accompanied by Roland Aston and Dunk McGiven aboard the power boat Polar Bear, owned and skippered by Capt. Casperson of Bella Coola. The Polar Bear came in from Channel Island, Gardner's Canal. Capt. Larson has been spending six months' trapping and hunting along the coast having left Fanny Bay, situated on the east coast of Vancouver Island, on January 4, aboard his power boat Water Vag accompanied by Roland Aston, Fred Larson, Andrew Anderson and Dunk Mc-

The Water Vag met with Capt. Casperson at Channel Island and as he was coming into Prince Rupert Capt. Larson took advantage of the trip leaving his own boat in care of his brother Fred and Andrew Anderson.
