The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

"CANADA would not be what she is today if it were not for the Senate," declares a writer. We must admit we never really liked the Senate as a factor in Canadian life ,but we would not like to blame the senators for everything.

THERES one man in this town I hate. He calmly, deliberately and without equivocation suggested that it might be a nice idea some day to get out a special humor edition of the Man in the Moon column.

I TALKED over the situation with Jake and he says, "Oh, let her rip. She ain't always so bad."

COME June, sweet June,
Yea stifle us we pray thee,
Until we wipe our brows and cry enough!
Command the sun,
Command it to obey thee,
Get busy June old dear, and do your stuff.

NOW JUNE, Old June,
There's time enough today,
Or else tomorrow for a final show,
Give joyful heat and all our woes allay,
For little time is left ere out you go.

THERE are hundreds of different kinds of worms, including several husbands I know.

THE height of pessimism is shuddering at the thought that some day we may reach the peak of our ambitions and have nothing more to work for.

A HICK town is a place where everybody knows who gets a bottle from the vendor's palace.

PARLIAMENT has ceased its round of ceaseless chatter for another term and the country will not be afflicted again until early in next year.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

Lieut. Van der Byl left yesterday morning for Prince George and intermediate points. He will recruit for the next contingent. It is expected he will return to the city in a week's time.

The baseball game last night between the Merchants and the Realty men resulted in a win for the former by a score of 25 to 13. Some of the features of the game were a home run by Frank Mobley, the splendid catching of Judge Carss and the phenomenal pitching of George Tite.

The city council last night voted $50.00 per month from July 1 to the end of the year for publicity purposes.

The Princess Royal has been specially fitted for the excursion to Ketchikan on July 2. The party will have an opportunity to visit Granby on the return trip, time being allowed to visit the smelter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb passed through the city this morning on the Princess Louise en route to Atlin to spend a short holiday. Mr. Lamb is interested in the lumber business in Oakland, California.

H. Boswell leaves on the train today for Smithers, where he will enter the employ of the Hanson Tie and Timber Co.
