Brigade Exercises To Be Televised

SENNELAGER, Germany (CP)—Training exercises of Canada's 27th Infantry Brigade are to be recorded in a television film, marking a precedent in Canadian military history. Following preliminary experimental work, the public relations unit under Maj. Alex Straton of Calgary will produce a 16-millimetre film depicting phases of training. Camera man will be Sgt. George Gaddie, formerly with the Canadian Defence Department in Ottawa. Lt. Michael Gaudreau of Montreal, of the Public relations staff, said it is hoped the film will be shown in the CBC's new television service.

Lawyers Seek Change in Canadian Divorce Laws

VANCOUVER (CP)—Proposals for changes in Canada's divorce laws will come before the 34th annual meeting here of the Canadian Bar Association.

Section committees from British Columbia and Saskatchewan are sponsoring resolutions urging that the association press for amendments to divorce legislation. The four-day annual meeting of the association opened Wednesday with Prime Minister St. Laurent on the platform as Brig. J. A. Clark of Vancouver delivered his presidential address. Clark proposed changes in the
