SERVICE NOT SERVITUDE

Has it ever occurred to you that the multitude of "Household Helps" offered for sale are of themselves lifeless and incapable of service unless controlled and directed by the already overburdened housewife.

Laundry service alone is alive, vital, imposing no new obligations, and asking nothing but your friendly disposition, to change servitude into service.

AMERICA LEADS IN MANY LINES

In Year 1924 Uncle Sam's Athletes Won Most Events in International Sport

NEW YORK, Jan. 8. —America's athletic forces swept overwhelmingly to triumph on fields of international rivalry throughout 1924, but in the Olympic Games at Paris, the chief event of the year, Uncle Sam's time-honored prestige sustained several distinct and stunning setbacks.

As the year's march of events is reviewed, however, the memory of reverses encountered by the wearers of the Stars and Stripes on the track at Colombes cannot altogether be erased even by the sweeping victories in seven other major Olympic competitions and the stirring triumphs scored otherwise in golf, tennis, polo, horse-racing and boxing. A summary of more important fields of 1924 competition shows Americaat the top in 12 out of 14.

With the aid of its forces, the United States carried off all Olympic point honors of importance but for the first time since 1908, the American colors were lowered in the coveted 100-metre championship, when the Cambridge student, Harold Abrahams, beat four of America's best sprinters, while Yankee distance runners fared dismally in the events from 1,500 metres up where the Finns, led by the marvellous Paavo Nurmi, swept the field.

International Ratings

Taking into consideration the Olympic championships as well as other important tests throughout the year, the international ratings for 1924 in the more important branches of sport show United States leading in everything except winter sports, in which Norway heads the list, and soccer, in which Uruguay leads. The runners up in each is as follows:

Track and field—Finland.
Tennis—Australia, France.
Polo—Argentine.
Rowing—Great Britain, Switzerland.
Swimming—Sweden, Australia
Boxing (amateur) — Great Britain.
Boxing (prof.)—France, Argentine.
Wrestling (amateur) — Finland.
Winter sports—Finland.
Rugby—France.
Soccer—France.
Shooting—France.
Horse racing—France.
Golf—Great Britain.

when he opened his tour of the North American continent in New York. Nurmi, who always has been an outdoor track man, is reported to have declared that he was uncertain as to what kind of a showing he would make indoors and that, if he did make good, he might cut short the tour upon which he is now embarked. In view of the fact that, in his very first appearance he not only defeated the pick of what America had to offer in the way of opposition but also set up three world's records, the Olympic star should now go through with his trip with his record as well as his reputation unscathed.

Now they are talking of putting up a professional against Nurmi. Tom Longboat, the Indian distance runner, bobbed up in Buffalo last week stating that he wanted a chance to race with Nurmi when the Finn appears in that city. "Of course," said Longboat, "Nurmi is an amateur and I am a professional and he will not turn pro but I am going to ask the Niagara district branch of the Amateur Athletic Union to reinstate me." Longboat first broke into prominence more than fifteen years ago but gained most of his fame as a professional. Lately, he has not been doing very much and, of course, he is aging. It is said, that his application for amateur reinstatement may receive favorable consideration.

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN SALVAGE ACTION

Local Witnesses in Case Between Capt. Swanson and Coastwise Company Have Returned

Judgment in the case of Capt. Alfred Swanson and R. Gammon of this city vs. the Coastwise Steamship & Barge Co. in which the plaintiffs claimed fifty per cent of the value of the barge Griff and her cargo of coal which was salvaged by the gasboat Pachena last February was reserved by Mr. Justice Martin in the Admiralty Court at Vancouver last week. The case took considerable time and several witnesses both for the plaintiffs and the defendant company were heard. Local witnesses, Capt. Swanson, Mr. Gammon, Capt. D. A. Candow of the Chief Zibassa and Capt. E. McCoskrie, harbor master, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon.

Capt. Swanson expresses satisfaction with the prospects for the outcome and anticipates that a judgement in his favor will be delivered in a fortnight or so.

BIG GAINS REPORTED BY THE ROYAL BANK

One of the most impressive features of the financial statements of some of the larger institutions of Canada that have been made public recently is the exceptionally strong liquid position that is indicated in the balance sheets. The report of the Royal Bank of Canada for the year ending November 29, 1924, is an excellent illustration of this. Out of total assets of $583,789,509, no less than $278,024,739 are classified as immediately available liquid assets, representing 47.7 per cent as compared with 43.3 per cent for the previous year. These liquid assets comprise also 54.5 per cent of the bank's liabilities to the public as compared with slightly over 49 per cent shown in the statement of the previous year, a gain of over five per cent.

As the situation stands, the Royal Bank is in an unusually favorable position to provide assistance to the industries of the country at such time as these may require to call upon it.

In the Letter Box

IS IT JUSTICE

Editor, Daily News.

In reviewing the crime wave which is sweeping over the Province at this time, it sets one thinking in order to find a solution.

So many convictions which were made in the north, were appealed in the south and honorably acquitted. Why, Sir, have we this state of affairs? Why hold court here at all? Far be it that anyone be unjustly punished, but the moral and example is utterly lost by this condition.

For instance, let us look at the case of the Quadra and the Vancouver lawyer who jumped his bail, a fugitive from justice, and a member of the bar association of the Province of British Columbia. What is his position when appealing for a client for whom he asks bail? I am given to understand he is still allowed to practice.

It is my opinion that until the bar association of the Province of British Columbia urges its members to refrain from dealing with the illegitimate and the underworld the affairs of the province in this regard will liken to the restricted district in the noon-day sunshine—ashamed!
