ALICE ARM IS PICNIC CENTRE

Large Crowd From Anyox Visits Mining and Lumbering Camp For Holidays

ALICE ARM, May 27. — The 24th of May came to Alice Arm with a largeness and wealth of sunshine and warmth in so far as the weather went, and with a happy crowd of people from Anyox in so far as it relates to visitors. In fact it could very well be called Anyox day. A tally of those that arrived shows that 140 people came in chartered boats, besides several owners of private launches made up parties and brought them over.

Go further and make the day 15 hours long, and let it begin at 9 p.m. Saturday, when a couple of boat loads of Anyoxites, accompanied by their orchestra, came over for a week end dance at the Alice Arm Hotel, and when the dance ended at 3 a.m. daylight was breaking in the camp and residents walked home with the robins singing an orchestration of their own, and it was the 24th.

Saturday Dance

But to return to the earlier period of our 15 hour day which was the hotel dance. The trio of musicians, Mrs. Chapman, piano; Bogwill, saxophone; and Cameron, drums, have a local Anyox reputation as jazz artists and they added to it here. Their playing was highly complimented and greatly appreciated by those in the crowded ballroom. The supper was served by the managers of the Kitsault Cafe, and was in great abundance and variety.

The 24th proper was mostly made into one large picnic by our Anyox visitors. The green grass, flowers, and trees received their due praise and appreciation from those that make their homes in the smelter town.

Band Concert

A pleasant feature of the day was a two hours open air band concert given by the Elks band of Anyox. The first part of the concert was given by Anyox musicians, Austin, piano; Armstrong, violin; McEougall, cornet; Steele, trombone; Waterman, drums; and Hutcheson, clarinet; while L. Falconer, violin; R. G. Gordon, saxophone; and Mrs. Laidlaw, saxophone, augmented the orchestra for the last half of the program. The music was greatly enjoyed by the people of Alice Arm as well as by the visitors.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY HOSPITAL IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE

The president of the hospital board here has received a letter from the secretary of the Skidegate Inlet Hospital at Queen Charlotte City asking for help for that institution. The letter reads as follows:

Dear Sir—The Skidegate Inlet Hospital at Queen Charlotte, Queen Charlotte Islands, B.C., is seeking assistance, either financial or by way of supplies, such as towels, bedspreads, floor runners, etc., and at a recent meeting held it was decided by vote to ask the different outside merchants, if they could assist in any way.

For your information I may state that the hospital here receives no government grant or assistance of any kind, but is maintained by the residents of the islands for their benefit and also for the logging camps in the vicinity. Last year a campaign was carried on, the hospital was re-shingled, painted and otherwise improved. To do this the directors were forced to place a mortgage on the property and building for $1,000.

The needs now are furnishings or money, the latter to assist in paying the mortgage, the former for equipping the rooms, etc.

Wednesday, July 1, has been set aside as a special day for this purpose, and your assistance would be greatly appreciated by all on the Islands.

J. ROBINSON, Secretary

Owen W. Ross, appointed to the position of city clerk by the council last week, refused the post which has now been offered to Arthur Wright of West Vancouver. A third choice, in the event of Mr. Wright's failing to accept, has been made in James Fairweather of Vancouver.

Provincial Constable Van Dyck has left for Takla Lake to investigate the circumstances of the recent drowning there of Vic Gluske.

Dr. R. B. Lazier, who left Prince George in 1919 and who has since been in Nelson and California, has returned here to resume medical practice.

H. G. Perry, M.L.A. has left for Winnipeg on a week's business trip.

Miss Virginia Johnson will enter the Toronto Conservatory of Music in September to complete her piano studies.

Can You Afford to Speculate?

EVERY time you buy something you are either speculating or making a definite investment.

Few people can afford to speculate. Yet many do it continually, in making their everyday purchases. And it is so unnecessary. The advertisements make it easy for any one to avoid taking a chance.

The merchant or manufacturer who advertises, realizes that the good-will of his customers means money in the bank to him. He knows that the public confidence in his product and public respect for his own character are as valuable as his credit at the bank.

So he makes the individual satisfaction of his patrons, their loyalty and their friendship paramount issues in his business.

When you buy an advertised product, you can know in advance what to expect in return for your money. You can count on its being right. You are making an investment.

But when you buy nameless, unbranded merchandise, you are taking a chance. You are speculating.

Know what you buy. The advertisements will tell you.

MELLIAR SETTLED IN CALIFORNIA HAS PURCHASED STUDIO

A Santa Cruz newspaper says: W. H. Melliar of British Columbia, who has been touring California for six or eight months, has purchased the Sunbeam Studio, 132 1/2 Pacific Avenue, and is now getting well squared away for an intensive summer's campaign in the photo realm.

Mr. Melliar, who has been doing photographic work for a quarter of a century, declared that both he and his wife are very much pleased with the climatic conditions here, and are doubly interested in the scenic beauties of the country, hence they located here in order to get some of the proverbial California sunshine.

Being a finished workman along his chosen profession, and being well equipped to handle his work in a highly creditable manner, Mr. Melliar is taking up his very pleasant task with a song.
