QUEEN CROWNED LAST EVENING

Large Crowd Attended Interesting Event at Exhibition Hall Last Night

MAYPOLE DANCE PRETTY

Dance Followed Spectacular Event in Which Many Took Part

The crowning of Miss Myra Kinslor as Queen of the May was a picturesque and colorful affair which attracted an assembly filling the Exhibition Hall to capacity last night.

At the appointed time the regal party was ushered from the rear of the hall to the raised carnival dais which was artistically decorated with flowers and foliage in spring effect. Through the aisle of Maypole dancers, the Queen was led by the little flower girls—Mary Evans and Daphne Holtby—down a rose strewn path. Immediately following the queen were the little crown bearer—Anne Kirkendahl—and the maids of honor—Miss Pamela Cameron and Miss Bernice Ross.

Mayor Newton presided and, after making a few appropriate remarks, the crowning was performed by Miss Patricia Stork.

The centre of the floor was then cleared for the Maypole Dance in which Misses Audrey Parkin, Audrey Tremayne, Linnea Hanson, Eleanor Tite, Elizabeth Wilson, Maxine Heilbronner, Kathleen Duncan, Ruth Anna Starr, Enid Morris, Frances Tremayne, Amelia Pillsbury, Patricia Stork, Helen McCaffery, Shelia Stuart, Margaret Smith, Edith Kergin, Muriel Walker and Jean Scott took part.

The queen's costume was of white organdie trimmed with black with pale blue sash and tie bows. The style was mid-Victorian as were also the frocks of the two maids of pink organdie and pale green with hats to match.

Credit for the success of the entire May Queen festivities are due to Mrs. David Thomson who took charge for the Elks and Fair Board. Giving invaluable assistance were Miss S. A. Mills and Miss Agnes Donaldson and Miss Lorraine Grant who was accompanist.

After the crowning and Maypole Dance a jittery dance started with the Queen Waltz as the opening number. Ben Self was master of ceremonies, John Bulger and Harvey Fraser presided at the door and the orchestra consisted of Kenny Rood, Howard White, Miss Irene Morrison and M. Cooper.

PARTY ENTERTAINED SUNNYSIDE CANNERY

Mr. and Mrs. Field Strang Hosts to Large Party of Prince Rupert People at Dinner

A number of Prince Rupert people were dinner guests last evening of Mr. and Mrs. Field Strang at Sunnyside Cannery. They left here in the morning in Mr. and Mrs. George Bryant's power yacht Harla for the Skeena River and lunch was served aboard the boat. Some fishing was done by members of the party and in the afternoon when the weather made the outdoors rather untenable, bridge was played in Mr. and Mrs. Strang's home. The climax was the dinner in the mess house to which about twenty sat down and at which there were appropriate toasts. Giving the Victoria Day touch the place cards were in the form of Union Jacks.

Dancing followed the dinner and the party arrived home soon after ten o'clock. Those going from here were Mr. and Mrs. George Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. McLennan, Consul and Mrs. Wakefield, F. G. Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. McClymont, Miss R. R. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Campbell, H. F. Pullen, E. C. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Watt and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Westenhaver.

NATIVE SONS OF CANADA MAY BE ORGANIZED HERE

With the visit here tomorrow of Robert H. Carsons of Victoria, president of the general assembly of the Native Sons of Canada, an effort will be made to link up the local Sons of Canada organization with the larger organization of which it is not now a unit. Mr. Carsons, who arrives here tomorrow by train after having organized branches of the Native Sons of Canada at Jasper, Prince George and Terrace, will address a meeting tomorrow night and will sail Thursday evening for the south.

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

SEVERAL boxers have found the game getting dull so they are trying matrimony for a change.

A LOT of the boys I know are afraid there will be a "tell the truth week" soon.

NOW that the fishing season is here let us begin to think about bait.

A lot of people are not as funny as they look.

TO Mac the greatest sport of all is trying hard to swat the ball, or going out with mitt on hand.

To stand and wait and then to stand, and when the ball comes near his way

Some very shocking words to say.

Yes, Mac's a sport, that we all know.

In fact I heard him tell me so.

ABOUT the saddest thing in the world is an optimistic mascot for a ball team that never wins.

NEWS of the dash to the pole will today be nothing but a dash.
