FACTS ABOUT TEA SERIES-No. 4

The Two Types of Tea

There are two distinct types of tea, namely Black Tea and Green Tea. Both are made from the same bush and both are equally pure. The difference is in the process of manufacture which gives each a different flavour. Black Tea after it is plucked is withered and partially 'fired' or dried, then allowed to oxidize by being exposed to the air. This gives Black Tea its dark reddish colour when drawn. Green tea is immediately steamed after plucking, which prevents oxidization. There are delicious blends of "SALADA" in both of these types and also a unique blend of Black and Green Tea Mixed. All are sold in four qualities.

Prince George And Prince Rupert.

When the joint committee of the city council and the board of trade was formed to take steps to bring the Prince Rupert outlet for the Peace River to the attention of those in authority, a committee from Hazelton visited the city and discussed with the local committee the claims of the Hazelton outlet by way of Peace Pass, the Omineca and Kispiox Valleys. About that time it was decided to publish a booklet setting out Prince Rupert's claim and to give the interior points each page, presumably to tell why the railway to Prince Rupert should connect with the C.N.R. by way of their particular disfrict.

Among the places communicated with was Prince George, but instead of doing that the secretary of the Prince George' board of trade wrote an article which argued that Prince Rupert was not the best route but the P.G.E. outlet was a better one. Naturally this was directly opposed to the idea the Prince Rupert committee had in mind and could be published. If Prince George had a rival route to put forward they were perfectly justified in doing so but not at the expense of Prince Rupert. Be-, cause their article was refused a place in the booklet the Prince laughs in "Little Robinson Cru-George paper comes out with an article speaking of the petiv soe" as there are cocoanuts spirit shown by the Prince Rupert board of trade.

Prince Rupert and Prince George have much in common! and it is seldom there is any misunderstanding between the people of the two cities and it will be a pity if the intended generosity of the joint committee of the city council and the board of trade has the effect of interfering in any way with the good feeling that has always existed.

Deflation Of Currency.

There should be some protection by international arrangement against any country deflating its currency.
