Flapped in Breeze: Luggage of Girl Travelers; Newest Shoes

By Sylvia Mayfair
LONDON, April 20. — Not the time, three years ago, in a London newspaper tried to put a new kind of hat on to man's head has there been a sensation in the men's of fashion as over the new trousers. About a month ago a Canadian undergraduate student walked bravely down High Street in trousers were so wide and long that they flapped in the breeze and completely obscured the feet.

Jazzy Luggage
Luggage of girl travelers have been flapped in force, and by the way you know them, for they had a craze for their luggage in stripes and brilliant colors, but fashions in this change. Spots and are now the vogue.

Newest Shoes Smart
New shoes that women wear are terribly uncomfortable and terribly smart, the shoes, particularly, are really more like sandals with long pointed toes, and in support to the instep.

DOBBIN ON SNOWSHOES IN ROCKIES

It looks funny and it sounds even funnier, but after all why not? It is had enough to carry 140 pounds on two feet in deep snow. Figure for yourself what it would be like to quintuple the poundage even though it is distributed over double the human allowance of footage.

This genial idea was put into practice by Walter J. Nixon member of the Council of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies and it was found to work out quite well. In the particular instance shown in the cuts, the task was to break the trail through deep snows to the Phoenix mine in British Columbia and this onerous task would have been impossible without some such device as the one depicted.

The idea of the Trail Riders Order came into being one rainy day last summer on a bed of white heather under a tent in the Canadian Rockies about 7,000 feet above sea level. There were present or nearby about 28 saddle or pack horses and 14 trail riders who had ridden or fished along the Kootenay from the Crossing to the river's unmapped source in Warfield Basin and had landed on the plateau beside Tumbling Glacier at the head of the Wolverine Pass. It was there and then decided to form the Order and buttons were awarded to those who had travelled distances on the trail from 2,500 miles down to as low as fifty miles. Among the

The first Pow-Wow of the Order was held last summer in the Yoho Valley and with the co-operation of the Canadian Pacific Railway accommodation at the Bungalow Camp at Takakkaw Falls was supplemented with twenty Indian teepees and a large circular tent decorated as a Sun Dance Lodge. It was expected that 150 people would be present, but actually no fewer than 207 were counted at the inauguration. It was at this function that the bronze plaque of Tom Wilson, one of the outstanding old-time guides of the Canadian Rockies, was unveiled.

The next Pow-Wow will it is stated take place early in August of this year beside Wapta Bungalow Camp after a three day (45 mile) cross-country ride from Marble Canyon on the Banff-Windermere Road. The trail to be used calls at the Vermilion Paint Pots, climbs up Tumbling Creek to the Wolverine Plateau where it connects with a new trail over the High Alps east of Helmit and Goodsir, and after dropping down to Goodsir Creek rises again alongside McArthur Pass to Lake O'Hara and so to Wapta. This route traverses some of the most spectacular scenery in the world.

Membership in the Order of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies has increased greatly in the first year of its formation. At the August Pow-Wow there should be nearer a thousand than the 200 odd participants in the function last year.

CUSTOMERS WAITING OPPORTUNITY TO BUY

Reported Waiting Outside Local Business Houses this Morning

A person who passed up part of Second Avenue, Sixth Street and Third Avenue this morning shortly after eight o'clock reported what looked like customers trying to get into no less than five places of business, but they were unable to do so because the doors were not yet open. At one place the customer stopped him and asked if he had seen the proprietor and inquired what time he usually arrived.

The incident was considered noteworthy in view of the fact that some of the merchants have been saying business is dull. Advertisers in the Daily News

CROSS-WORD PUZZLES ARE IN EVERY JOURNAL

Every journal is running cross-word puzzles these days. They are to be noticed in Journals as far apart as the C.N.R. Magazine and the War Cry! They have not yet appeared in the Board of Trade booklet, but doubtless in the next edition there will be some there.

Some of the question you see are difficult and then some of them are very easy, such as a five-letter word denoting "The staff of life." You guess immediately it is bread! But remember at your grocers to say "Electric Bread" and then you get the best.

Editor Daily News. Thank you, Mr. Editor, for taking up the cudgels on behalf of the sick children. As you say in your editorial, not many are sick here but there are a few sad exceptions and for them a children's ward in the hospital is badly needed. The Daughters of the Empire are doing good work and if the people or some rich person will put up that twelve hundred dollars needed to make the ward, they will be do-

BETTER THAN RICHES

Under the dome of the Board of Trade in Manchester, England, is this inscription: "A good name is rather to be chosen than riches." The thought is considerably more than mere sentiment. It is good business.

A good name is recognized as the biggest individual asset a business can have. It is the very keystone of modern industry. Business today is done on such a broad scale--every merchant and every manufacturer has such a long list of customers--that it would not do to have a reputation for "slipping something over"

Advertising has standardized almost every article you can buy. You don't have to bargain and dicker and haggle to know that you are getting as good as you give.

That's why it pays to read the advertisements and to buy advertised goods. A product's advertising is the best guarantee of its faithful performance and lasting usefulness or of definite value. The advertiser would not dare risk his good name by advertising an unworthy product.

If you value satisfaction--if you want to get your full money's worth every time--READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS and buy advertised merchandise.

Take advantage of the advertisements and get real value

ing something that will be worth a lot to the little ones and to the sick women who have to have the children in their ward at present. Women like children but they do not like to have them around when they are sick. No mother can rest and know that a child is suffering in the next col, and every true woman is either a mother or a prospective mother.
