EIGHT HOUR DAY ACT IS EXPLAINED

F. V. Foster, Member of Board, Addressed T. & L. Council Last Night

Frank V. Foster of the Eight-Hour Day Board addressed the local Trades & Labor Council last night making an explanation of the new Act with particular reference to the matter of exemptions. There was a large attendance at the meeting which was presided over by S. D. Macdonald, the president of the council. As a result of Mr. Foster's explanations, many members of the council, who had not been entirely familiar with the working of the Act, became more satisfied with the manner in which it was being administered.

Mr. Foster cited some twenty different cases in which exemptions had been allowed. Cold storage plants were entirely exempted at the present time. Sawmills east of the Cascade mountains had also been exempted. In view of winter conditions, operations of these mills in the winter were largely curtailed and, in order to put them on a more equitable basis with mills on the coast, they were being allowed to work nine hours per day.

May Withdraw

Exemptions had been granted, Mr. Foster declared, so that industries would not be unduly hampered and, in the most cases where they had been allowed, it had been on request both of the employers and the workers. The Eight Hour Day Board, Mr. Foster further stated, reserved the right at any time and without notice to withdraw exemptions if it was found that they were being used to abuse the purpose of the act in any way. The Board also had the power to take such offenders into court.

Referring to the case of laundries, Mr. Foster stated that all laundries in the south were operating under an eight-hour day. If they were not doing so here, measures would be taken to compel them to do so.

Answered Questions

Many questions were asked and answered satisfactorily by Mr. Foster and, at the close of the meeting, he was tendered a vote of thanks.

Mr. Foster will leave on tonight's train for Prince George where he will make a personal investigation of complaints that the Eight-Hour Day Act is being evaded in that district.

FRIGHTENED AT AGE

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Feb. 25.—Discovery that she was 103 years old instead of 93, as she thought, is believed to have hastened the death of Mrs. Maria Hynes, one of Cleveland's few centenarians. Mrs. Hynes was wealthy and spry until a few months ago when a grandson, examining her birth certificate, issued in London, England, called attention to the fact it was dated July, 1822.

EXCURSION TO ANYOX

Local High School Teams Will go North this Week to Return Christmas Visit

Their trip being also educational in nature because they are to be shown through the mine and smelter, girls' and boys' basketball teams representing the Prince Rupert High School will journey to Anyox at the end of this week to return a visit paid them by teams from the smelter town during the Christmas vacation. With Miss A. A. Pierce, commercial teacher, and Ralph Smith accompanying them, the teams will sail on the steamer Venture Thursday night and will return to town Tuesday morning on the Cardena. Games will be played at Anyox on Friday and Saturday night's and elaborate preparations are being made to entertain the locals.

Those chosen to make the trip are:

Girls—Catherine Harvey, Laura Frizzell, Lillian Lowe (captain), Evelyn Johnson, Florence Smith and Mary Long.

Boys — Eddie McLean, Perry Baisler, Yoshi Katsuyama, Harry Walker, Arthur Phillips and Alex Mitchell (captain).

Anyox Line-ups

The Anyox High School players, who have been training under the guidance of Jimmie Mitchell, formerly of this city, will line-up as follows:

Girls—M. O'Neill, R. Champion, J. Moffatt, T. Deith, B. Chapman, A. McLachlan and J. Morley.

Boys—T. Swanson, Cyril McDonald, E. Clay, S. McLachlan, E. Dupuis and J. Lazoreck.

The series will decide the inter High School championship of Northern British Columbia. On the occasion of their visit here, the Anyox teams were beaten by the locals but they are planning to turn the tables when they meet the same rivals on the home ground.

Sport Chat

At a meeting of the billiard league executive in the Elks Home last night, Bert Morgan presiding, preliminary arrangements were made for the holding of the individual city billiard championship elimination tournament early next month. Entries will be received up to March 4, the fee being $5. A substantial prize list is being arranged for various records in the series. The games will be played on the Elks' tables and there will be another meeting of the executive on Sunday next to decide on the style of balls to be used. Conditions of the competition will be largely similar to those that prevailed last year it is expected.

With the baseball season almost in sight now, fans will regret the departure of Babe Fortin, pioneer southpaw twirler, who sailed last night on the Cardena for Vancouver with the expectation of remaining in the south. After an absence of several years, Babe returned to town towards the end of last season and engaged in most of the important games staged in the Fall. It was expected that he would be a valuable factor in connection with this season's activities. Art Easson is another of the local baseball stars of some years' standing who will be leaving the city shortly. It is being hoped that industrial development in prospect this year will bring players to the city who will be able to fill adequately the places of these two and other players who will not be seen again on the local diamond this season.

Can the Great War Veterans make an aggregate of 1201 in tonight's first division tournament with the Grotto? That is the question that billiard fans are speculating about and it is what the Vets will have to do if they are to win the league championship over the Prince Rupert Billiard Parlor. The Vets have their best line-up picked out for the tournament and there seems to be a good deal of reason to their expectation that, with it they will be able to turn the trick. Following is the way the two teams are matched for this tournament which will be the last of the first division season:

Don Brown (Grotto) vs. Col. S. P. McMordie (Great War Veterans).

George Waugh vs. Sergeant Jebson.

Bert Morgan vs. Fred Pyle.

J. Beasley vs. Percy Tinker.

E. Pearce vs. J. Andrews.
