WILL ATTEMPT WORLD FLIGHT

Major de Pinedo, Italian Chief of Air Staff, Will Hop Off From Rome in May

ROME, March 5.—Major de Pinedo, Chief of the Air Staff, plans to hop off next May from Rome on a flight around the world, which will cover 35,625 miles, the way his route is planned.

The route he follows will include Athens, Egypt, the Red Sea, the southern coast of Asia, Tokio, the Pacific Archipelago and Sydney, Australia. His route from that point has yet to be arranged. This is an entirely new route, and will be of even more interest than former round-the-world flights, as there are some long jumps on the route from Tokio to Sydney, Australia.

The Chief of the Air Staff will be accompanied by a mechanic as yet unnamed, and the machine to be used will be a 400-horse power machine, with a flight capacity of ten hours.

WALKED THE FLOOR FOR HOURS NERVES WERE SO BAD

Wherever there are people who are troubled with deranged nerves they will find in Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a remedy that will restore the equilibrium of these deranged centres and bring back the shattered nervous system to a perfect condition.

Mrs. W. W. Anthouse, Woodruss, Ont., writes:—"After having a severe attack of bronchitis I was left in a very weak, run-down condition; my nerves were all broken up; could not sleep at night, and would have to get out of bed and walk the floor for hours."

"After using a box of MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS I began to feel much better, and after taking a few more boxes I could enjoy my rest as well as I ever did. I always recommend them to all my friends."

For sale at all druggists and dealers; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SCANDAL HITS MANY GERMANS

Barmat Affair is One That is Stirring Whole Life of Country

BERLIN, Mar. 5.—Germany is paying considerable attention just now to a financial scandal. It is called the Barmat affair, and is casting its shadow over the political life of the country. Some high officials are already involved, and nobody knows who next will be dragged into the limelight. Public charges are being held in an endeavor to ascertain facts, and the trials evidently lead into more than one political camp.

Four brothers of Russian birth, Julius, Solomon, Herschel and Isaac Barmat, came into Germany a few years ago by way of Holland, vouched for, it is alleged, by the German foreign office and certain prominent politicians. They formed a company to import furs, but gradually branched out into banking, the buying up of paper and artificial silk factories, iron and steel mills, sawmills and pottery works, and various other activities. They prospered exceedingly.

Prussian Bank
Then some one started an investigation of the Prussian State Bank, one of the oldest financial institutions of Germany, as a result of which it was revealed that the bank had liabilities in excess of its capital and reserve, and that it had loaned large sums without proper collateral. A man named Kutisker was a party to these transactions.

Then almost overnight the whole affair was given a new aspect. While Kutisker confessed to his irregularities, it soon developed that there was a concern which had apparently gone in for even wilder financing, the Barmat corporation. Kutisker was presented with an order for his arrest on Christmas Day, and the Barmat brothers received similar warrants as a New Year's greeting, their arrest taking place on the afternoon of December 31.

The affections and friendships of the Barmat brothers are coming to light. The trail leads to the doors of prominent Socialists; a Communist deputy and a Clerical-deputy appear to have been involved, and a cabinet minister resigned under the fire of charges in which the Barmats figured.

Being Investigated
Several different investigations already are under way, and the Barmat affair is being made the football of German politics. Charges that the Socialists were on close terms with the Barmats are matched by counter-charges that Nationalist officials were so lax in their credit policy that millions of marks were loaned to them even after the Reichsbank had rigidly shut down on credits, and after rumors were current in exchange circles that not all was well with the Barmats.

The investigations include probing into the deals in furs by the Barmats as quasi-official agents of the government; a searching investigation of the terms under which credits were obtained, and an examination of the multifarious undertakings of the four brothers from Russia.

HOTEL KEEPER FINED FOR NOT GETTING UP LET TRAVELLER IN

Was Sued by Man Who Was Kept Out in Bad Weather Early in Morning

WINDERMERE, Eng., March 5.—The proprietor of a leading hotel in this district will sleep with one eye open for the future, since he was fined $250 and costs by the county court judge for failing to let a traveller in the hotel for several hours one morning.

The traveller told the court he was stranded through his baggage being lost and tried to obtain admission to the hotel at 5 o'clock in the morning. It was after 7 when he got in and during the wait was exposed to rain and cold. The traveller said that he did not bring action in a vindictive spirit, but wished to register his protest against the proprietors' refusal to entertain travellers and to show him that innkeepers had a duty to the travelling public which they were bound to carry out.

The court upheld his views and fined the proprietor.

The city solicitor has received consent from the lieutenant governor in council to the bylaw recently enacted by the city council providing for reductions in light charges now in effect.

"CYTHEREA"

(Goddess of Love). A modern romance with the love and love of springtime. A searching portrayal of the lives and loves of men and women of today. A delightful photo-play to which beautiful sequences in natural colors add fascination. Cytherea, first-goddess of the White Race, fairest of the fair, lives in every heart. Adam till today all men have served her. Her rule is not chief. Cytherea, Venus, Aphrodite, whose spirits live in modern women who woo, win, love, make or break. Alma Rubens—like Cytherea, beautiful, mysterious, like love. Irene Rich—like Venus, cold yet attractive, like womanhood. Constance Bennett—like Aphrodite, so fascinating. Love that turns to bitterness. Notable cast.

Lewis Stone, Norman Kerry, Charles Wellesley, Brandon Hurst, Alma Rubens, Irene Rich, Constance Bennett, Peaches Jackson and others.
