MEMORIAL TO WAR VETERANS

Proposal to Place One in G. W. V. A. Rooms But Should be Complete

The Great War Veterans of this city propose placing a war memorial in their rooms to all former residents of the city who were killed or died overseas during the Great War. In connection with this the following letter has been received:

The Editor, Daily News,

The members of this Association desire to place in our Club Rooms a Memorial which will bear the names of all those residents of Prince Rupert who joined His Majesty's forces and were killed, or died, whilst overseas, in the course of the Great War.

It is our earnest wish that no name which should appear on this memorial shall be omitted, and for this reason I would request the readers of your columns to be so kind as to forward to me the names of the killed and died which do not appear in the list below, or any other information necessary to correct and complete this record.

H. L. LANDREY,
Secretary.
Great War Veterans' Association,
Prince Rupert Branch.

SOCIAL EVENING AT ANGLICAN CHURCH

Interesting Event at Which Archdeacon Rix and Professor Shortt Gave Addresses

A congregational social evening at the Anglican Church basement last evening proved a most enjoyable event and was well attended. There was an interesting program of musical numbers and addresses followed by the serving of refreshments. Selections were given by the Ladies' Orchestra, conducted by Mrs. George Bryant. There were two songs by Mrs. Ross accompanied by Mrs. Syd. Johnston; piano selection by Mrs. D. Wilton; two songs by Miss Annie Dalby; and addresses by Archdeacon Rix and Professor Charles H. Shortt, all of which proved most pleasing.

Archdeacon and Mrs. Rix received the guests assisted by Mrs. McCroskie. The ladies in charge were Mrs. T. Andrew, convener, assisted by Mesdames Willett, Orchard, Vickers, Lapine, Kemp, Tucker, Greer, Burt West and Macey. The members of the girls' auxiliary waited on the guests.

COMMODORE HOSE NOT COMING HERE

Director of Naval Service Called Back to Ottawa — Local Headquarters are Being Moved

The visit of Commodore Hose, director of Naval Service for Canada, to Prince Rupert has been cancelled. Commodore Hose, who was in Victoria, was to have been here today but he received a telegram in the south calling him back to headquarters in Ottawa.

It is announced that the local headquarters of the Royal Canadian Volunteer Naval Reserve is being moved from the Hays Building to the immigration building on G.T.P. wharf No. 1.

ROTARY CLUB THANKED BEHALF SWIMMING CLUB

At the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday Sid Thomson on behalf of the Swimming Club thanked the Rotarians for their generous gift of $100 to be used in connection with the needed improvements at the Salt Lake Park. The motive actuating the gift by the club, it was claimed, was to help the children of Prince Rupert reach the park in safety.

Miss Mamie Fraser of Stewart was a guest at the week end at a smart tea given by her friend, Miss Nonie Cutler at her home, Carberry Gardens, Victoria, in honor of Miss Thyra Runnels of Vancouver.

APPRECIATES EFFORTS

Editor, Daily News.

Permit me through your columns to express to those who have taken part in making it possible to establish a children's ward in the Hospital the very sincere thanks and appreciation of the Hospital Board. The spontaneous nature of the response to the appeal made is a real inspiration to the management and shows how truly the heart of the citizens lies in the Hospital's welfare.

Particularly gratifying was the result of the tag day held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hospital and great credit is due them for their splendid efforts. Another very pleasing feature was the response made by the organizations in the city, nearly all of which contributed most generously.

I also take this occasion to thank you for bringing the campaign to public focus and I may say that without your valued assistance, the results would not have been so successful as they were.

Yours truly,
S. K. CAMPBELL,
President Prince Rupert General Hospital.

WOULD STUDY FLOWERS

Editor Daily News.

Early in the week you wrote something about studying the wild flowers here. Usually the school teachers lead in this work but they do not seem to do it here. I have talked to more than one of them and they do not seem to know much about them. I should like to suggest that you start your little lecture on the school teachers and then if there is no improvement on the general public.

If you think it worth while to publish this little note which may prove an impetus to more real nature study in the schools you may sign me
